Greek philosopher Aristotle once said of the Olympic participants, "He who rules the body and the spirit, rules the world."

The original Olympic games were revered in ancient Greece as the epitome of excellence in physical beauty, power, strength, endurance and style. Clovis West, the School of Olympic Spirit, has not only dedicated itself to these lofty principles, but has taken it one step further by placing equal importance on excelling in the areas of thought, reasoning, unselfishness, and pride.

The students and faculty of Clovis West are truly extraordinary in their unending quest for perfection.

Seeking for ways and means to make Clovis West the number one high school anywhere is not always easy, but there has never been a shortage of students and faculty willing to try. The hearts and minds of dedicated people came together as a united effort in this year, as in no other before and the results were astounding.

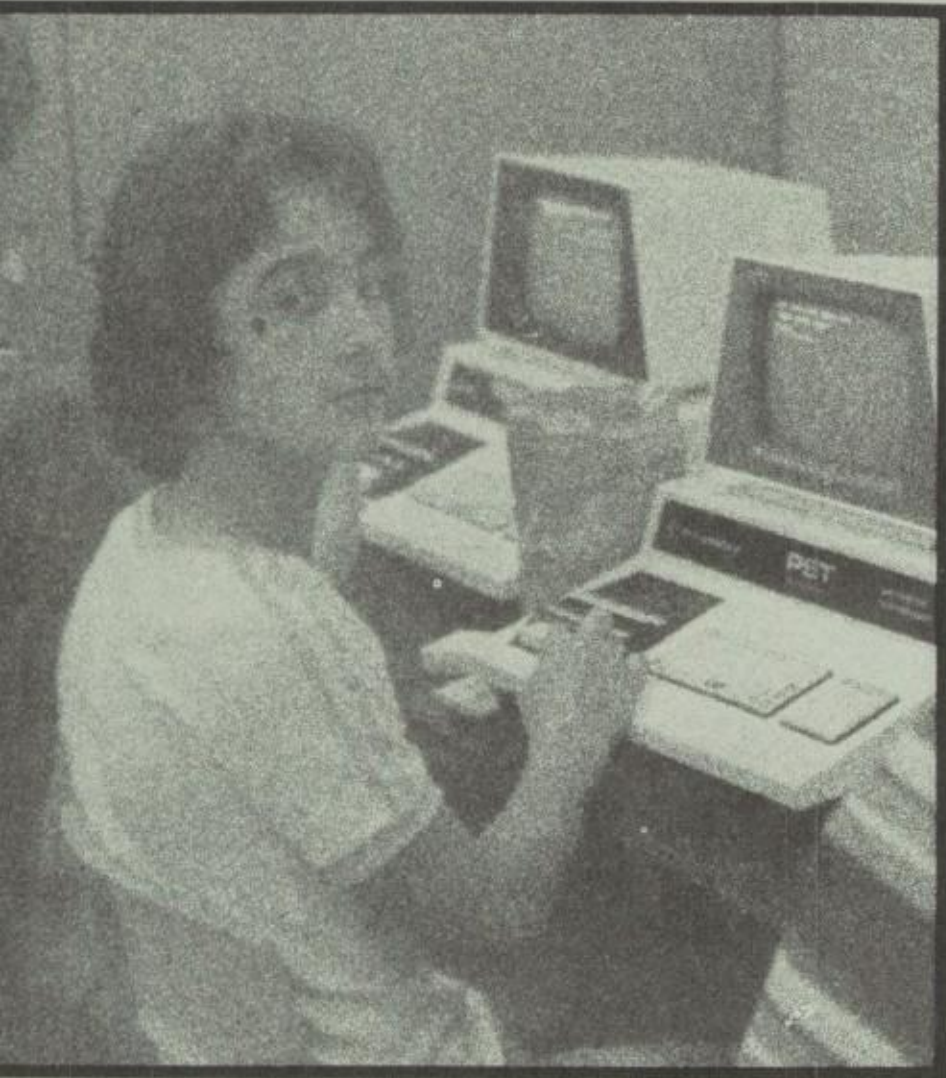

All those who open these pages of recorded time are invited to join in the celebration of our family, our pride, our Olympic Spirit.

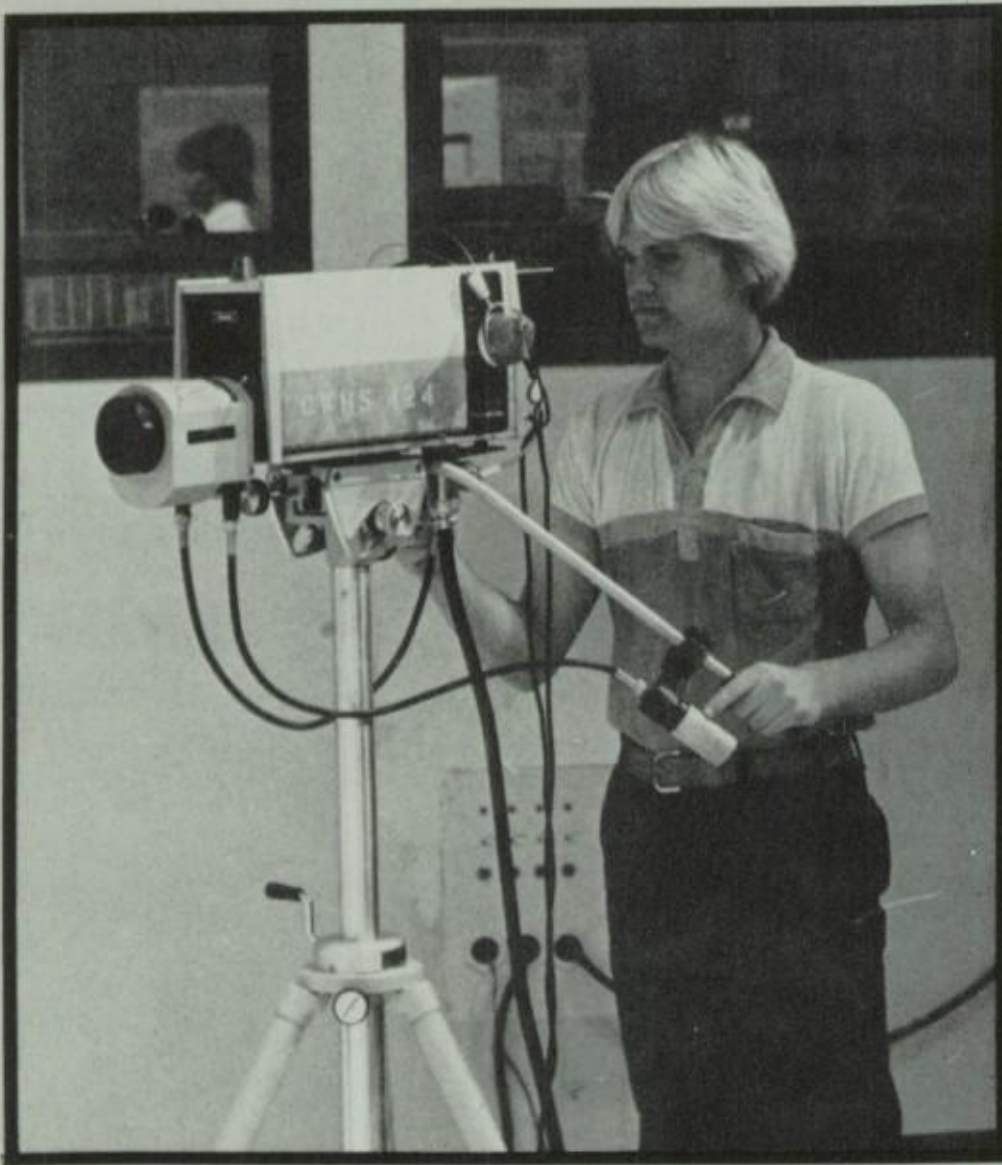

The Olympic Movement offers the fundamental values that enable a man to achieve his full stature and his proper balance. This philosophy, which reconciles action with thought more than any other, is for our time. It is this philosophy which we commend to the attention of all sportsmen and all educators.

May the pure spark which shines within each of us be kindled to fire by contact with these essential and undying truths, and so keep alive that symbol of peace and brotherhood, the Olympic Flame.

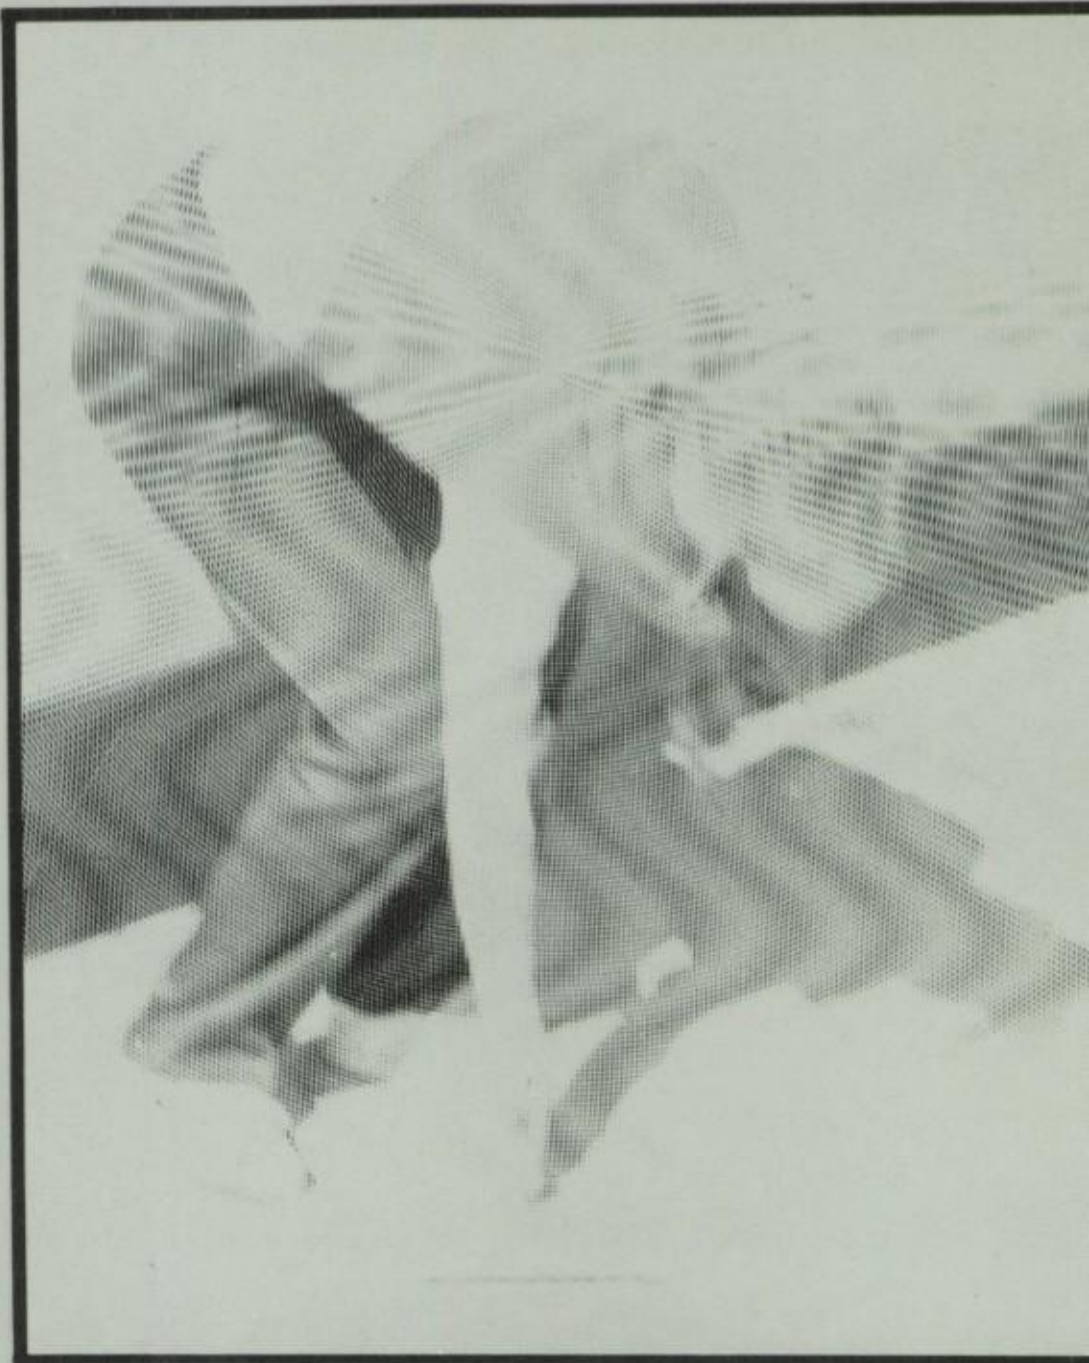

—Avery Brundage
USOC President 1932-1952
IOC President 1952-1972

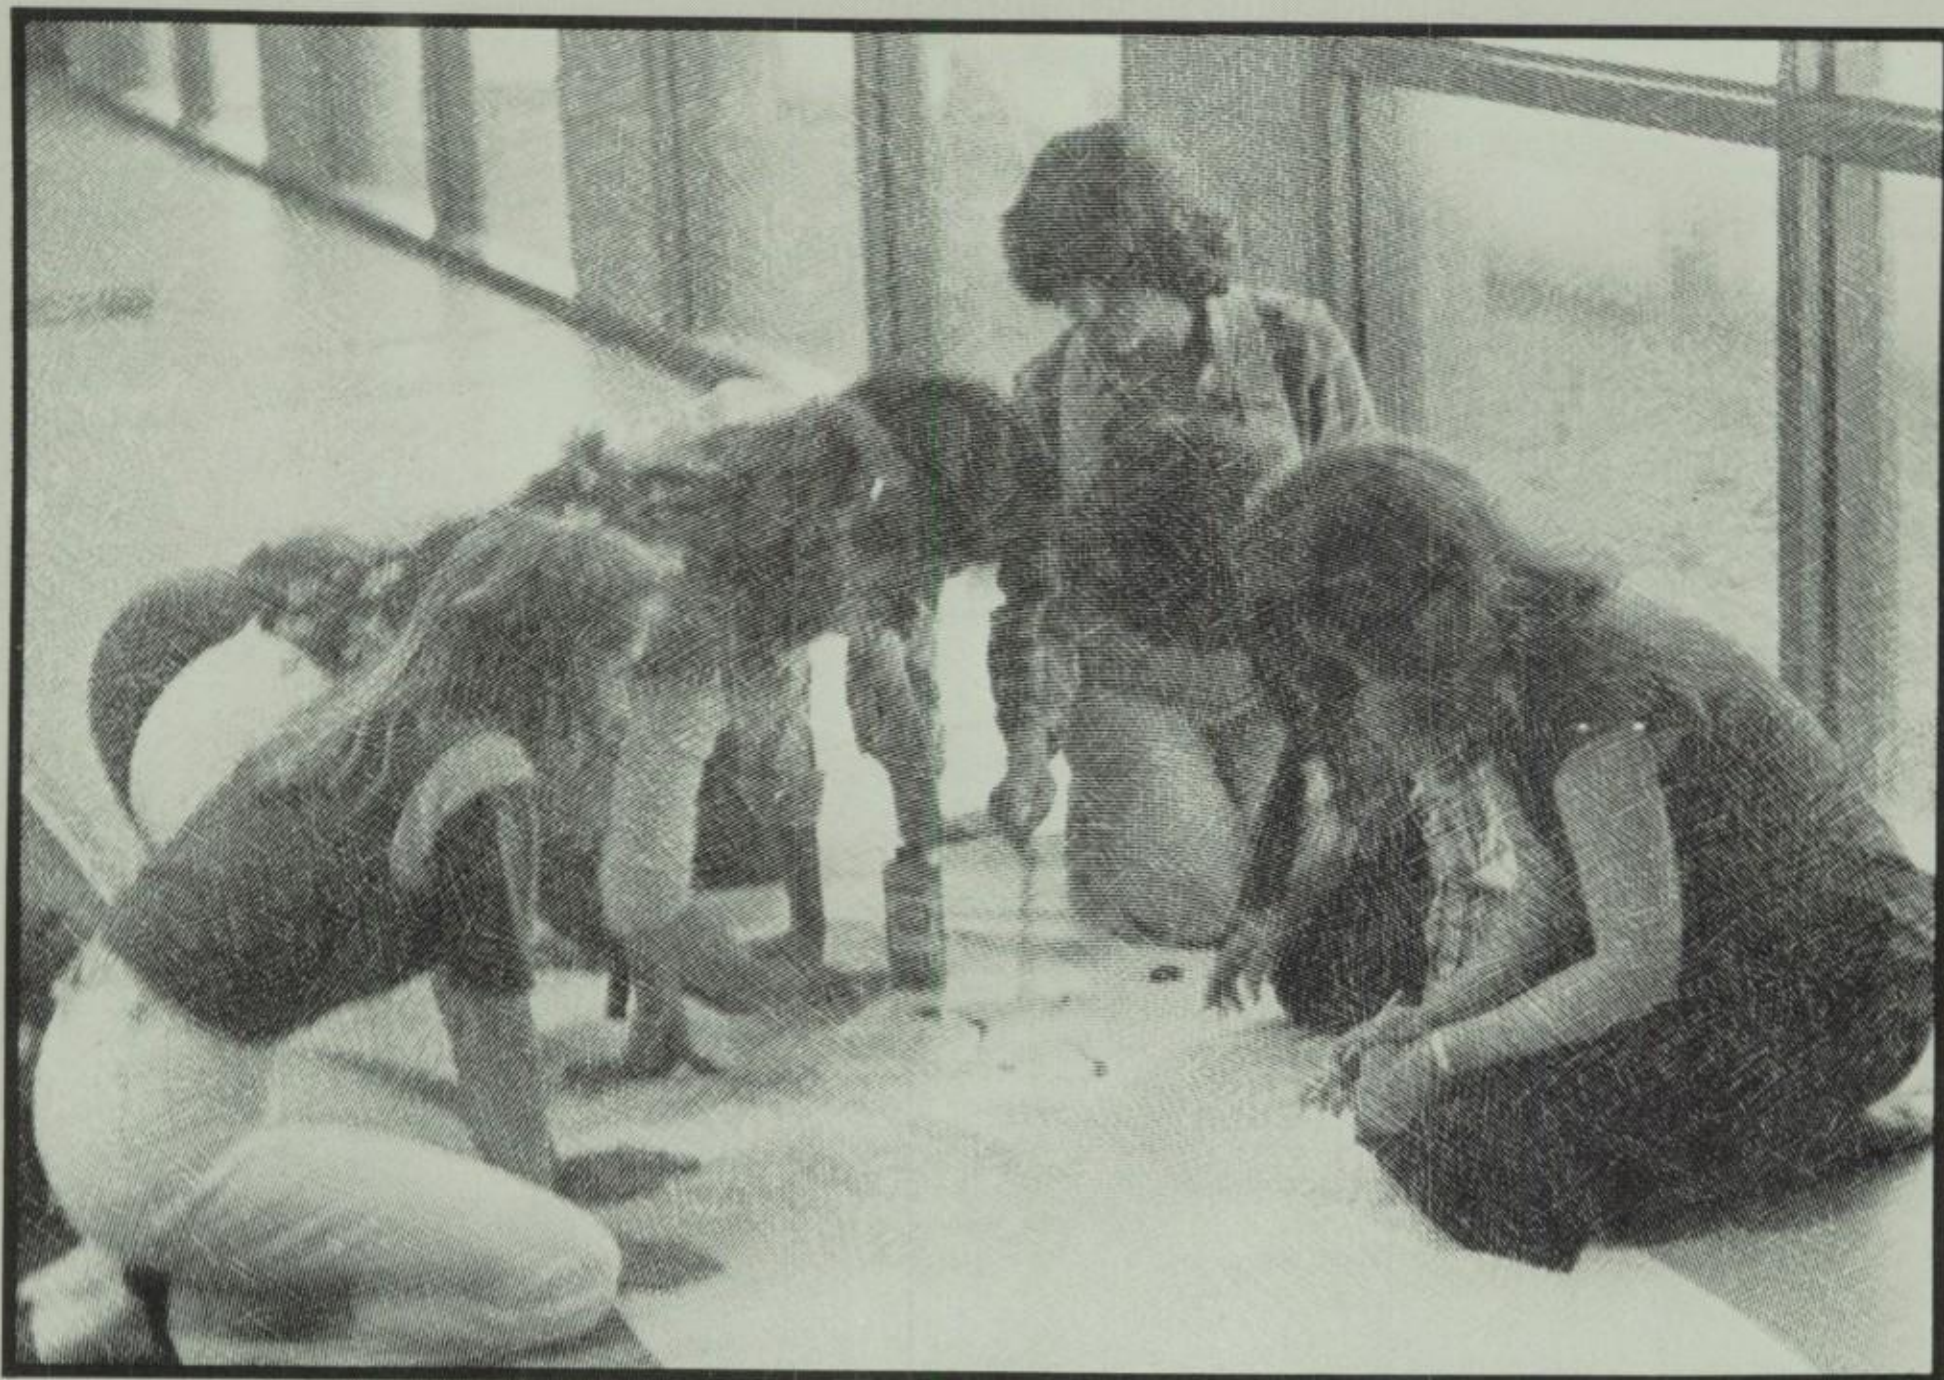

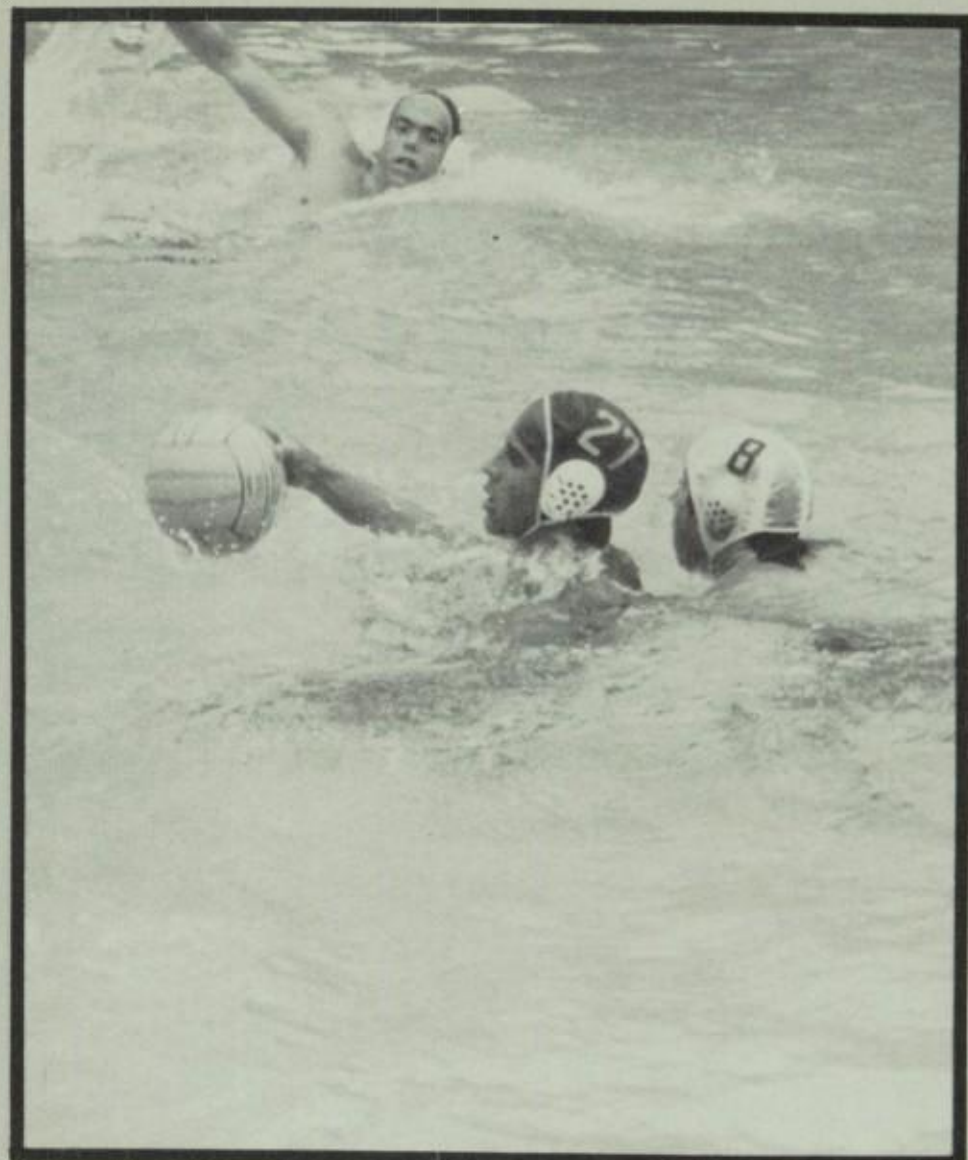

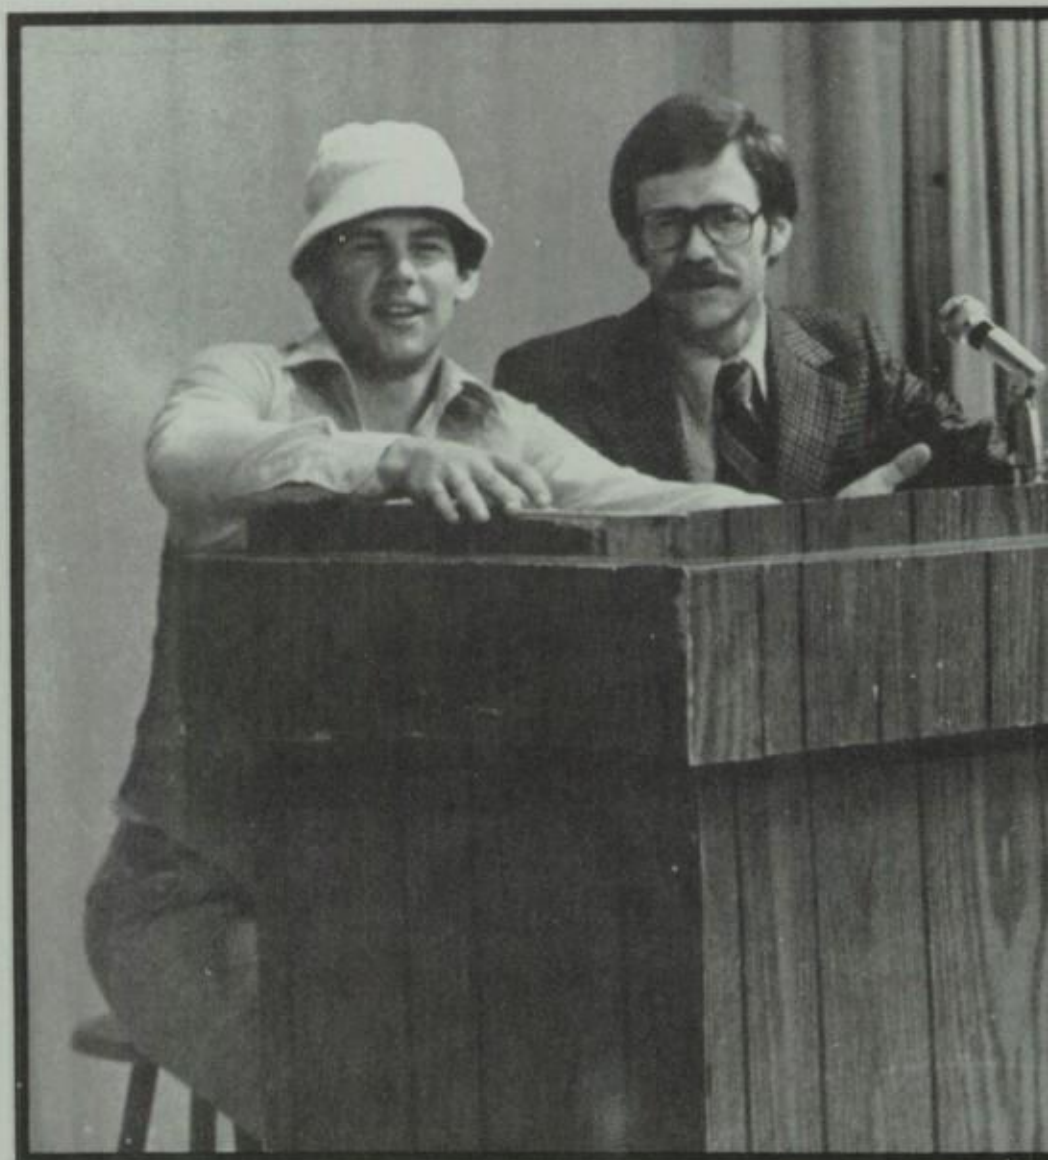

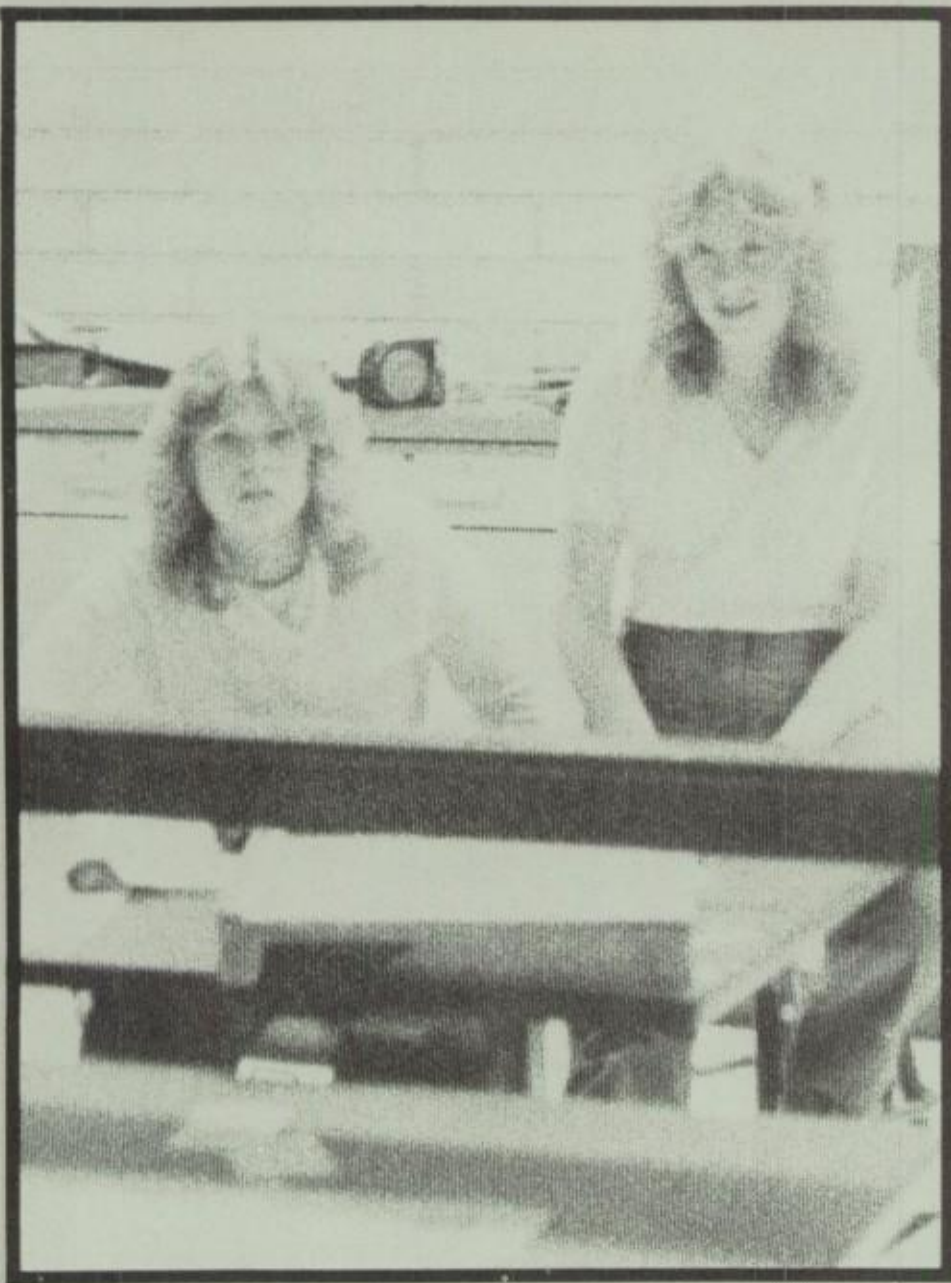

Fair play and good sportsmanship are inherent in a great majority of mankind of every class, color or creed. And that is why the Olympic Movement has such a universal appeal. We must keep the Olympic Movement on Olympic heights of idealism, for it will surely die if it is permitted to descend to more sordid levels. It is a precious thing that we must guard and protect. The world is in a turmoil; people are confused and bewildered by strange theories, alien doctrines and queer philosophies. We cannot cure these things, but we can set a good example, and perhaps here the world will find a solution for its troubles.

—Avery Brundage
USOC President 1932-1952
IOC President 1952-1972

The important thing in the Olympic Games is not to win but to take part, the important thing in life is not the triumph but the struggle. The essential thing is not to have conquered but to have fought well. To spread these precepts is to build up a stronger and more valiant and, above all, more scrupulous and more generous humanity.

—Baron de Coubertin

Fall sports standouts were honored at the Fall Sports Banquet on November 27. Coaches of the football, waterpolo, cross country, volleyball and gymnastics teams handed out awards and commented on their respective teams' performances.

The most valuable players on each of the teams received the Security Pacific Golden Eagle award for their contributions. This year's recipients included Todd Obermann for Boys' Cross Country and Karen Van Wagenen for Girls' Cross Country. The gymnastics award went to Cindy Wright, Ruth Lawanson for volleyball and Doug Burchell garnered the award for waterpolo. Standout quarterback George Rodriguez received top honors for football.

For the third straight year in a row, Clovis West had a Homecoming without alumni. But that did not dampen spirits. Homecoming Week started off with elections for Homecoming Queen and culminated with the big game on Friday night.

During the halftime parade, Karen Ehresman was crowned as the 1979-80 Homecoming Queen by out-going queen Lori Figueroa. The parade itself was outstanding. Lots of time and effort were put into the construction of the various floats. The VICA/MAC club took first prize in the float division, the Science Club received first place in the decorated car division and the CSF won the division title for their entry in the "other than car or float" category. The juniors took top honors when their entry won the Sweepstakes Award.

Members of the soccer, basketball and wrestling squads received honors for their impressive season. Recipients of the Security Pacific Golden Eagle Awards were Terry Reason, basketball; Jennifer Martin, basketball; Jerry Dunlap, soccer; Kathy Boling, soccer; and Craig Cowan, wrestling.

The Peanuts gang provided the theme for the Christmas formal held in the Clovis West Cafeteria. It was a night of excitement as quite a number of couples danced to live music and in general had a good time.

In the highlight of the evening, Kathy Drake was selected as the Prom Queen.

(Opposite above) Doug Prudek and Holly Olsen dance to the beat of the live band. Jill Brandon (Opposite below) gets down to some serious hustle. In an effort to bring Clovis West and Clovis High closer together, the first annual All-Clovis Week was held from November 3-10.

The week encompassed numerous activities that were enjoyed by students and staff from both schools. Among those were a parade through downtown Clovis, an Almost Anything Goes contest, a fashion show, and the main reason behind all this, the first ever football game to be played between both schools.

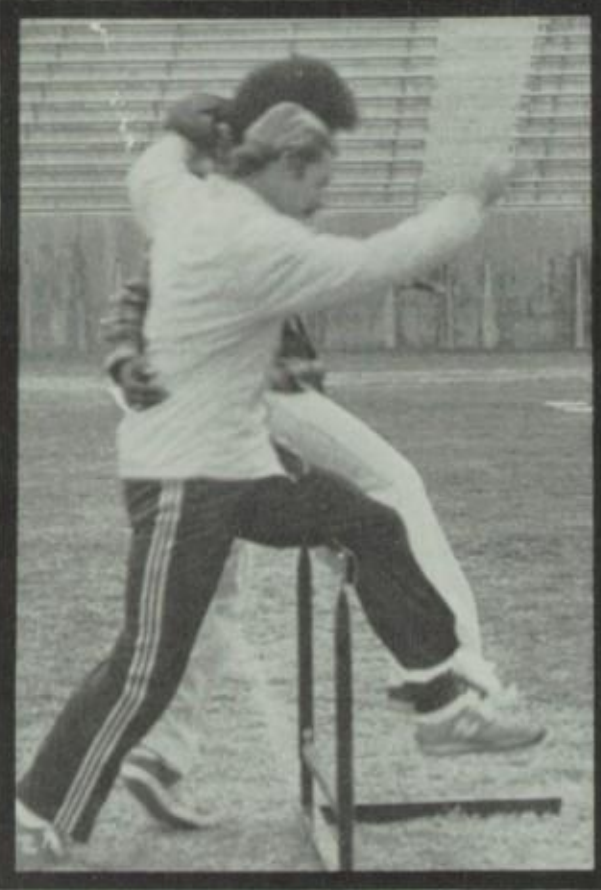

Judging from the enthusiasm and excitement of all who participated, the week could definitely be termed a success.

All-Clovis Week provided the setting for some of the years best rallies. An evening of song and high spirits was enjoyed by those who attended the first ever bonfire rally. Jack Hanna was the star of the program as he sang many songs and played the guitar extremely well.

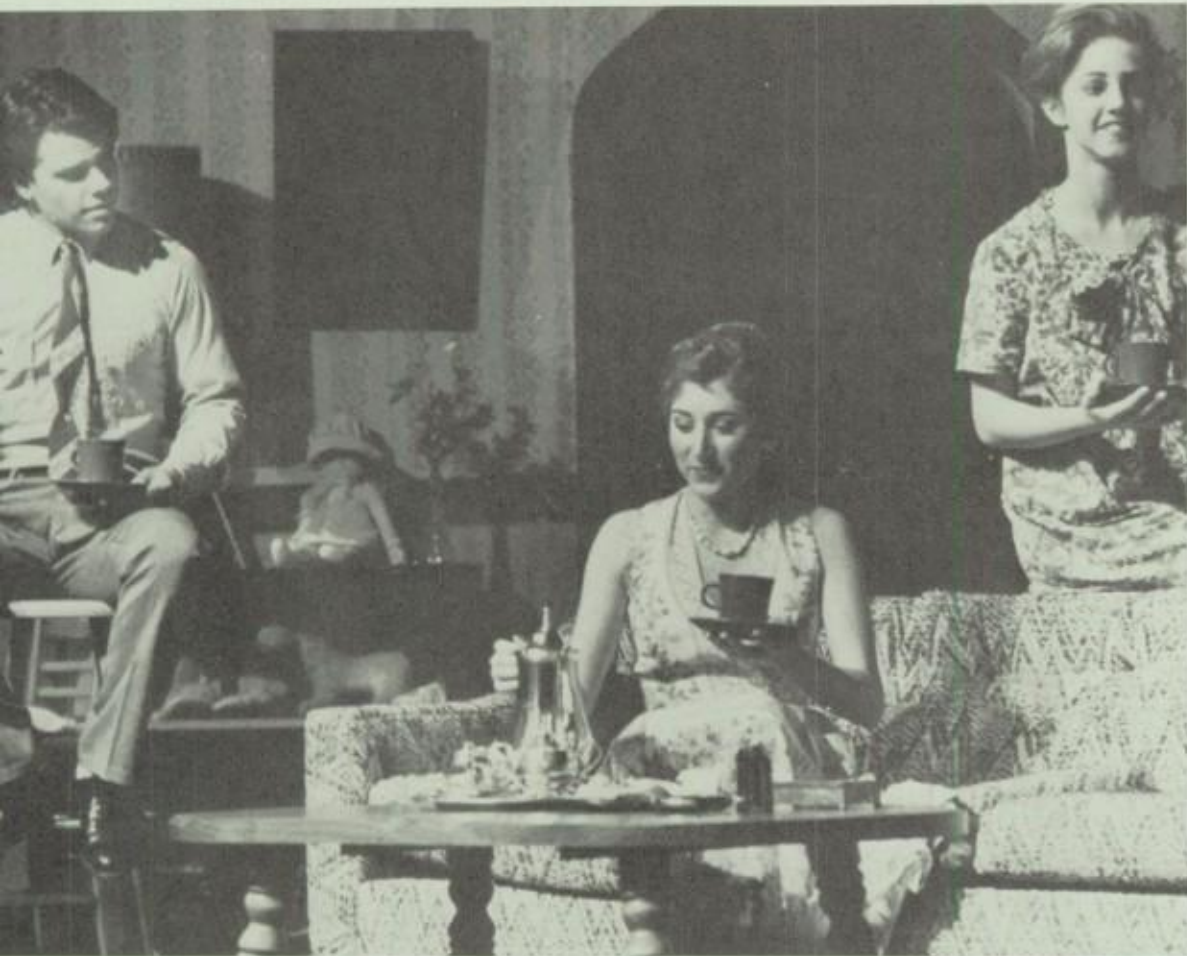

Later in the week a spirit rally was held in the gym. Everyone was fired up for that nights meeting with Clovis High and it showed. Staff and students cheered and applauded loud enough to be heard all around the school.

An ERA Rally was held on December 13. In this unique rally, the boys squared off against the girls to determine which side was the best. Poster judging, loudness of cheers and a basketball freethrow contest were all taken into consideration in determining the winner.

The talent and enthusiasm of the students of Clovis West was obvious when it came time to audition for the school plays. The many gifted students who tried out for the school productions of Bad Seed and Oklahoma made the job of casting extremely difficult for Ms. Bacon, who is teaching drama at Clovis West for her first year.

Theater West's second annual Cabaret, directed by Clifton Garbett, was a huge success. The audience enjoyed a variety of tempting desserts, prepared by Drama Club members, followed by the program which included singing, dancing and scenes from famous plays.

Leadership was stressed at the spirit camp held at the University of California at Santa Barbara that was sponsored by the California Association of Directors of Activities. The Clovis West Spiritleaders brought back many special awards as well as improving their own skills.

The girls decorated the campus before athletic events and also provided the atmosphere for the sports banquets.

Our Pep Squad is something that Clovis West should be extremely proud of. The countless hours that they spend creating and perfecting their routines has certainly paid off. The girls have participated in several competitions and have always received high honors for their performance. At Spirit Camp, which is held during the summer, they brought home an impressive first place trophy. The squad placed second, out of approximately thirty other teams, at the Valley Competition held at Clovis High.

All Clovis Week provided a chance for the CW Flyers to show off their talents to the City of Clovis. In the week opening parade, the Flyers and the band paraded through downtown Clovis.

Lettergirl Leianne Brescaine was selected to become a member of the All-American Drill Team based in Texas.

Performing spectacularly in all the parades and competitions, the Clovis West Marching Band has received many awards and gained much recognition. They also did an outstanding job performing during halftime at all home games.

If there is one thing that our mascot, Kathy Kempton, has plenty of it is enthusiasm. She amuses the students at rallies with her crazy antics and does much to promote school spirit in the stands at all games.

Donna Clover performs with the Band in all competitions and during halftime at the home football games. She did an outstanding job representing Clovis West in the competitions.

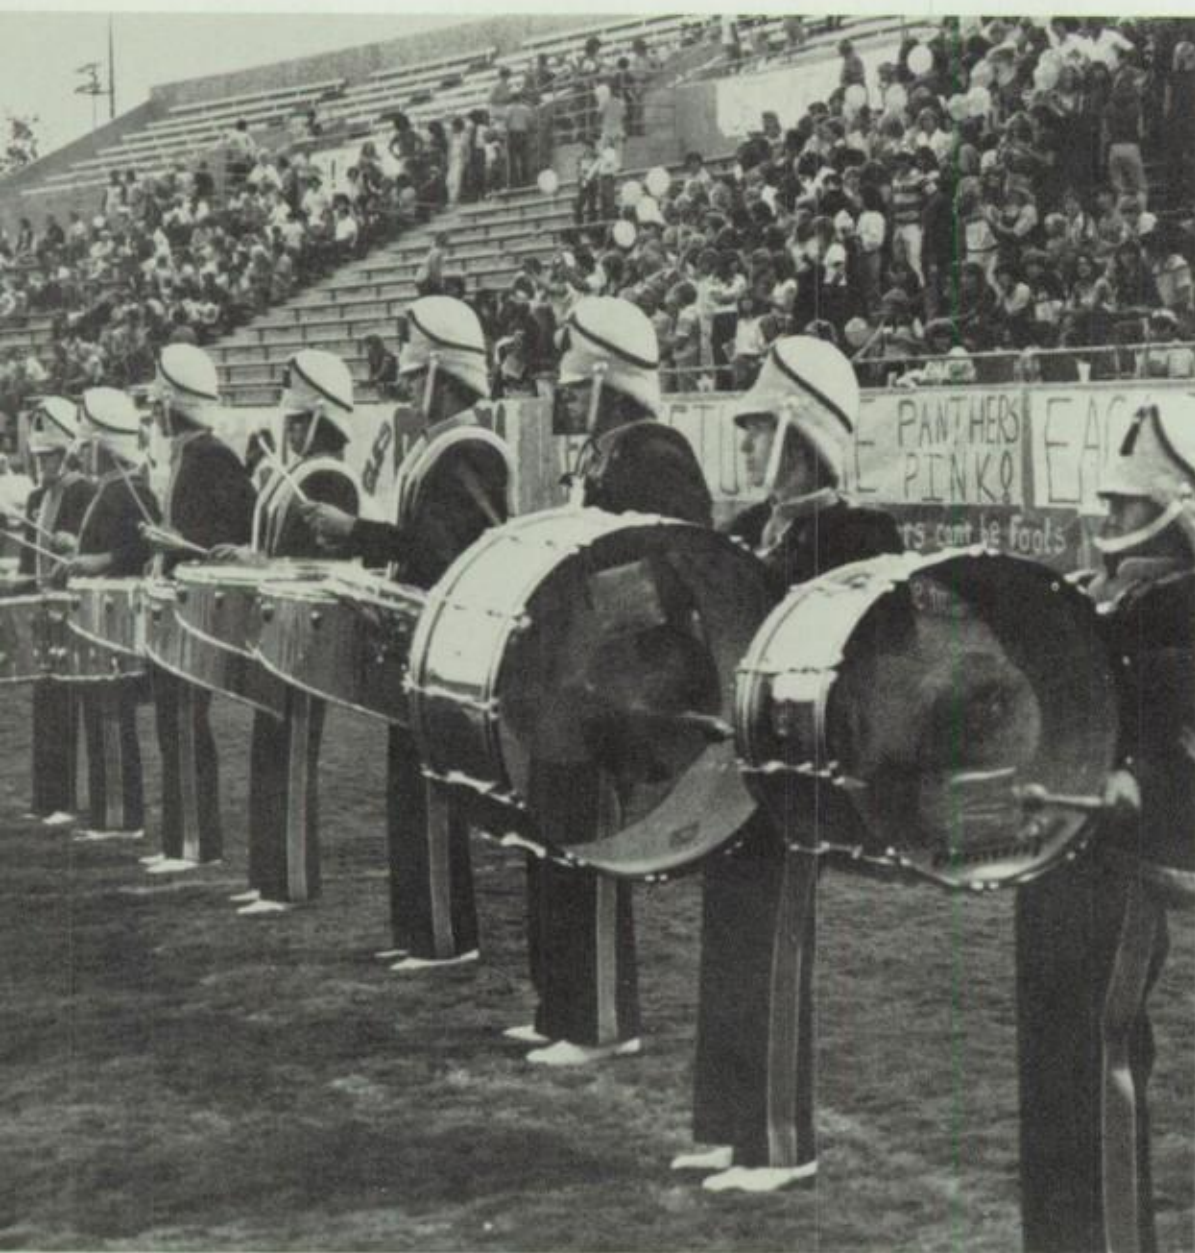

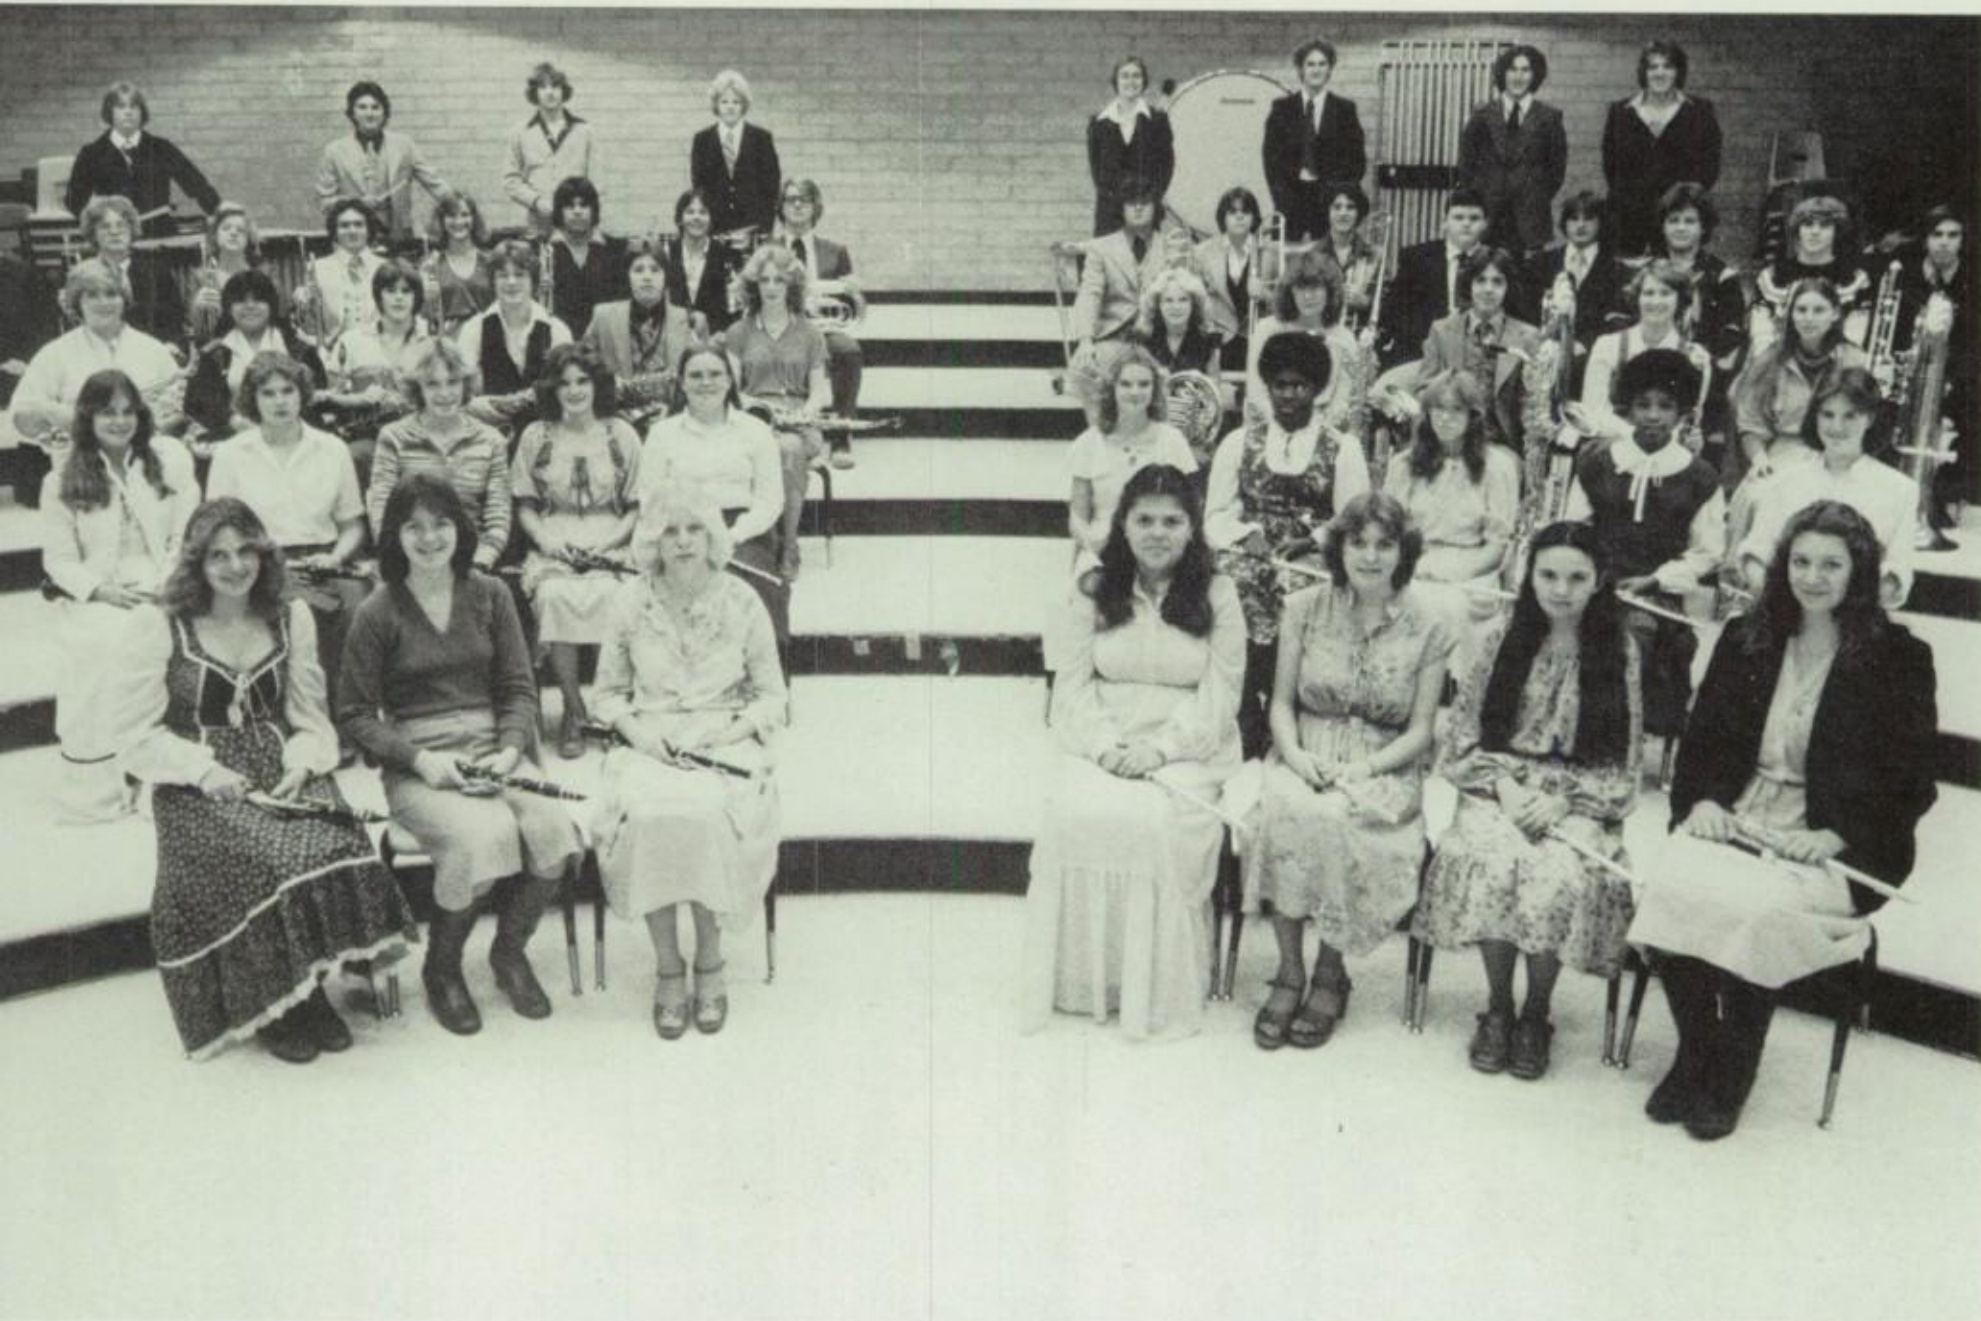

The Lettergirls (left) proudly led the way in the parade held in Clovis during Clovis Rodeo Week. Guy Holiday (opposite left) spends many hours practicing as do all the members of the Jazz Band. The Marching Band (below middle) entertains the crowd with their music and percise moves. Kathy Kempton and Donna Clover have done a terrific job as the mascot and majorette.

Providing music and spirit at Clovis West is the job of the Screaming Eagle Marching Band. Band members drill long hours to perfect their musical repertoire as well as their marching and formation skills. The band won several awards at the prestigious Selma Band Review.

All the great music at the rallies is provided by the jazz band. These students take pride in their musical accomplishments and are regarded by many to have the best percussion section around.

Powder Puff football gives the girls of Clovis West an opportunity to show their athletic prowess on the gridiron.

This years contest was won by the senior girls, making it their third such triumph in as many years.

The girls are coached by members of the football teams who supervise practices and make the game plays.

Special events were abundant at Clovis West this year. From field trips to political speakers, students could easily attend and enjoy the many activities.

Mr. Wachtel and Mr. Cleveland cooperated jointly to bring Senator Ken Maddy and Fresno Mayor Dan Whitehurst to speak before the government classes.

The most active new club on campus, the Physics Club, took many field trips, the outing to the San Francisco Exploratorium being one example.

During All Clovis Week a live band entertained students by the baseball diamond during lunch with a variety of good rock music.

During the four year existence of Clovis West High School, a very special person has touched the lives of many of us. A person whose enthusiasm, dedication and good nature have made her well known and tremendously well liked.

Born in Kittery, Maine, Susan Fisher moved to Fresno when she was four years old. She spent her elementary school years at Calwa Elementary, then she attended Sequoia Junior High before graduating from Roosevelt High. Mrs. Fisher attended Fresno State where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in English. Since turning to the counseling career, she has gone back to school and will have her Masters Degree in Psychology by July, 1980.

Mrs. Fisher's first teaching assignment was at Parlier High School where she taught for three years. When an opportunity arose to teach at Clovis High, she took the job and stayed at CHS for two years. She jumped to Clovis West when the new school began operation four years ago.

Her teaching philosophy is one of respect; teacher respect for students and student respect for teachers. Those who were fortunate enough to have her as an instructor came away with a positive self-image and not a love for education, at least the knowledge that the learning process can be fun and enjoyable.

This year Mrs. Fisher made the transition from teaching to counseling, a field that interests her and one that she feels comfortable in. The personal contact with students on a one to one basis, rather than the crowded classroom situation, is the way she likes to operate.

The 1979-80 OLYMPIAD staff would like to recognize Mrs. Susan Fisher for her contributions and valuable assistance rendered to students of Clovis West by dedicating this, the third edition of the OLYMPIAD, to her.

The '1' is a simple vertical bar. The '9' has a circular cutout showing a student writing. The '8' has two circular cutouts, the top one showing a student's head and the bottom one showing a student's hands writing. The '0' has a circular cutout showing a student's head. The background shows a brick wall and a window.

SENIOR CLASS OF '80

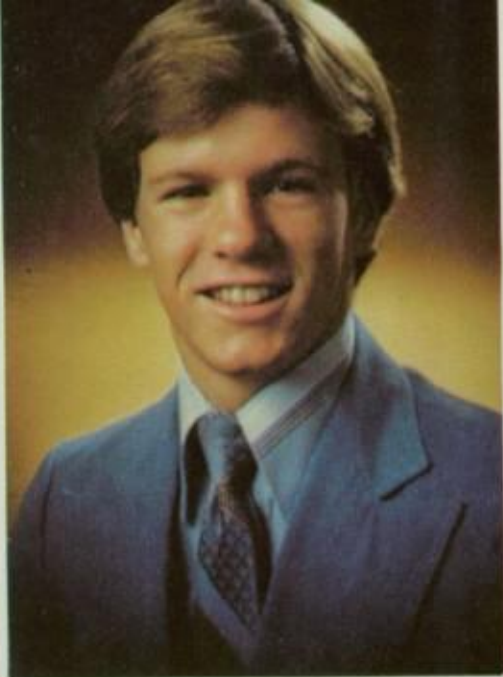

After four years of hard work, the first graduating class of Clovis West High School received their diplomas in ceremonies held at Lamonica Stadium on Thursday, June 5, 1980. The commencement exercises marked the climax of six years of planning, growth and development for Clovis West, its staff and students.

Various fund raisers over the years, including Life-Savers sucker sales, seat cushions, balloon sales and a jog-a-thon all contributed to a healthy treasury for a great senior year.

After much planning, the activities for seniors were embarked upon. A senior picnic at Blackbeard's and Grad Night at Disneyland attracted many upperclassmen. Seniors also received off-campus privileges and a special window at the snack bar.

The graduating class of 1980 gives its thanks to all the members of the administration, staff and faculty for making its stay at Clovis West an enjoyable and beneficial experience.

IN MEMORIAM

The loss of a classmate and friend is never a pleasant memory. John Ward's death saddened us all, but our solace lies in having known him and knowing how he made impressions on many of our lives. He would be pleased to know his peers and teachers saw him as an open, enthusiastic, energetic, intelligent young man. We will all miss him.

SENIORS ENJOY LAST DAYS

JUNIOR CLASS OF '81

Beautiful pennants were sold by the sophomore class to raise the amount of funds in their class treasury. The pennants were sold for $2.00 at basketball games.

The sophomores participated in the Homecoming Parade with a trailer decorated with the 1980 Winter Olympic Games symbol. In other activities, sophomore girls fought valiantly but still came up fourth in the Powder Puff competition.

CLASS OFFICERS: Steve Lizardo, Ron Chavez, Liz Kemmer, Paine Hodges.
CLASS YELLEADERS: Marla Warner, Lynn Wheeler, Kristi Marple.

FRESHMAN CLASS OF '83

The 1979-80 school year marks our first year as a full four-year high school with its first graduating class. The Class of 1980 has provided leadership and commitment during our successful change from intermediate to high school. The personal achievements and friendships will be valued by those of us who will return next year.

A yearbook will serve for a lifetime to remind the owner of special times and special people. We all owe an indebtedness to the staff that made this volume possible. I hope that reminders of happenings in the past will spur all of us to make the most of each moment as we strive for the better tomorrow. It has been my privilege to serve the student body and staff of Clovis West this year as its Principal. You have enriched my life.

Roger Craze

I have thoroughly enjoyed serving the Clovis West Student Body as Deputy Principal this year, a year that has truly been a "Premier Year!" 1979-80 is a year that will be remembered as the first year that the intermediate students were housed partly in their own facilities, the year Clovis West had its first semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Competition, the year Clovis West sent its first foreign exchange student to study on another continent, the year of the first All Clovis Week and Clovis West vs. Clovis High Football Spectacular, the year of our first Exchange Club Boy of the Month winner, and ultimately the year of our first "senior activities" which culminated in the first Graduation Ceremony for Clovis West High School. I am sure each member of the Clovis West Family can add to this impressive list.

The students and staff of Clovis West High School have raised the curtain and given an encore performance during this Premier Year. I congratulate the Clovis West Family and thank you for a very enjoyable year.

Liberal arts at Clovis West; literature, history, sociology and languages, fall under the administration of Cluster One. Cluster One has three primary goals,

First, the cluster will provide each student with instructors and counselors who will lead students in both academic and social involvements which will promote growth in both areas. Secondly, the cluster will provide programs which will provide a solid academic training. Finally, the cluster will develop an image as the school's academic excellence bearer.

Vocational education fell under the auspices of Cluster Four. The departments of Art, business, Home Economics, and Industrial Arts are all administered by this cluster.

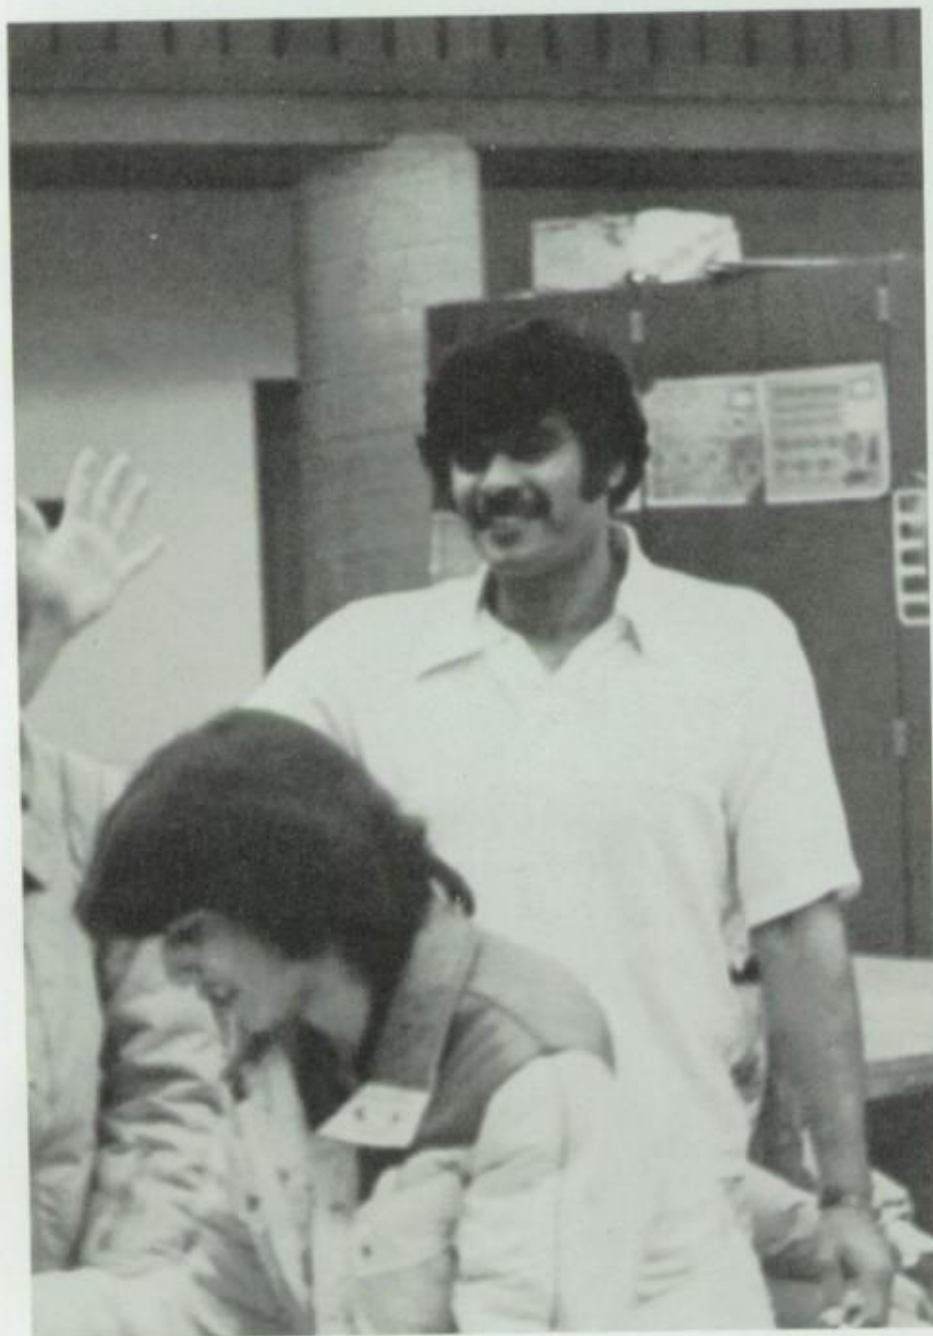

The design of the cluster enables a student to complete an academic curriculum while pursuing a course of study that will enable him to acquire an employable skill. One of the goals of this cluster is to prepare all its students to either be academically qualified to enroll in college or be able to qualify for immediate employment upon graduation from Clovis West.

Improving relations with Clovis High was one of the major goals accomplished by the Student Council this year. The council was involved with such activities as All-Clovis Week and the planning and organizing of the weeks' activities.

Members of Student Council tried to meet twice a week to discuss problems and to act on legislation placed before them by the House of Representatives. Their primary goal this year was to unify the school.

Block CW consists of approximately 20 members, all of them are responsible athletes of our school. The function of Block CW is to promote school spirit and to recognize the outstanding athletes of Clovis West.

Ski Club is by far the biggest club at school. One of the biggest trips the club took this year was the trip to Lake Tahoe. "It's a skier's paradise," some of the members exclaimed.

So many events and happenings take place during a school year that it is impossible to remember each and every one of them. No matter how major or insignificant, each plays an important part in the total school experience. Without a device to chronicle those special moments and good times that transpire over a school year, many of the memories would fade as time progresses.

A yearbook is probably the most important school document a person could possess, for within its covers lie the whole school year as seen through the cameraman's eye and the writer's pen. All the people and special moments are forever captured in print for the owner to look back upon and reminisce. When looked upon in these terms, the job of producing the book becomes a monumental task, but it is a task that is easily completed.

The 1979-80 OLYMPIAD staff presents this book to the students of Clovis West with great pride, for we feel it is something to be proud of, something to enjoy for a lifetime.

Celebrate the Olympic

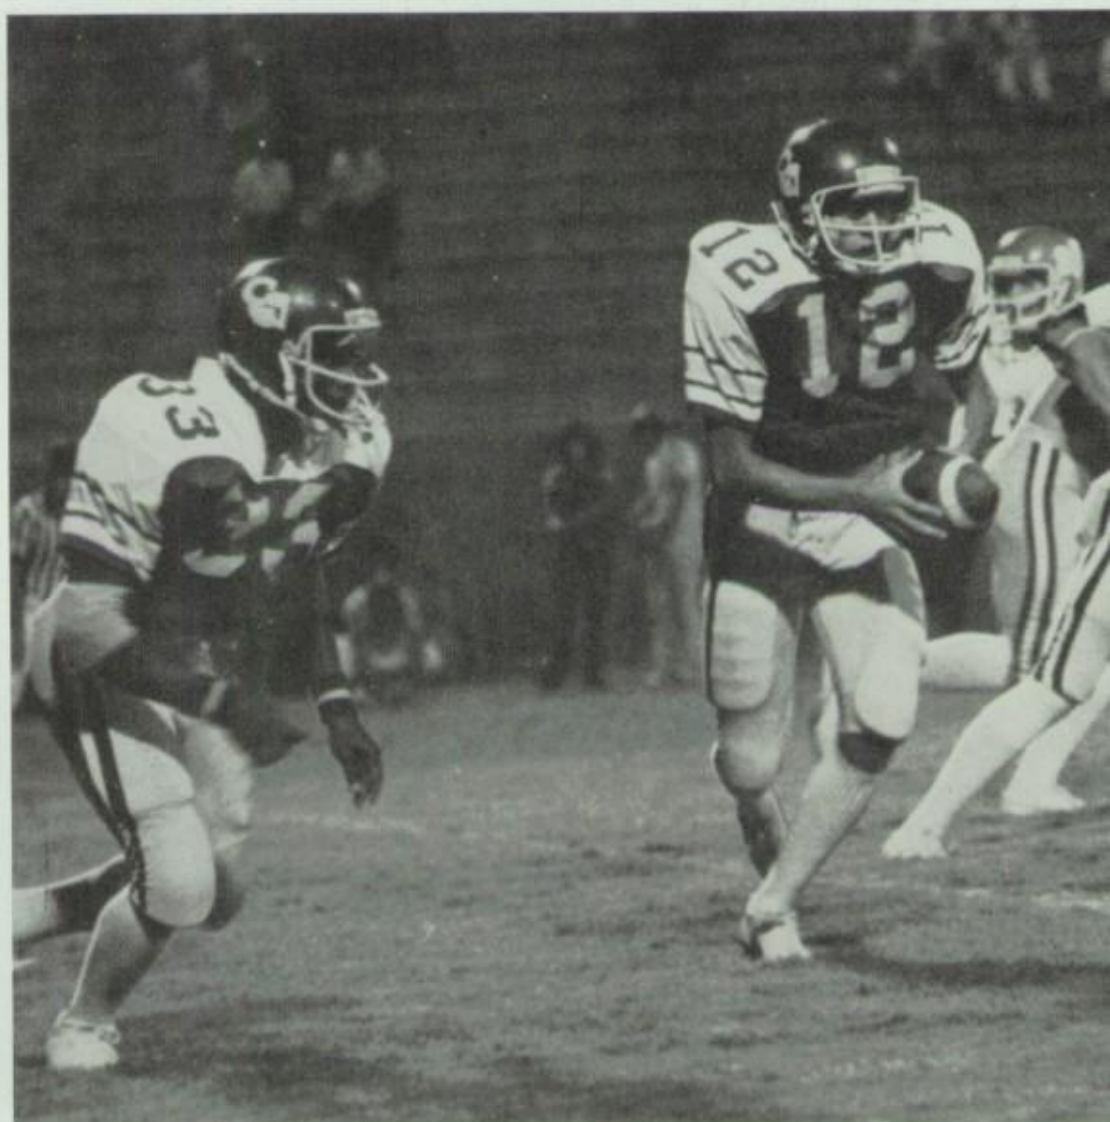

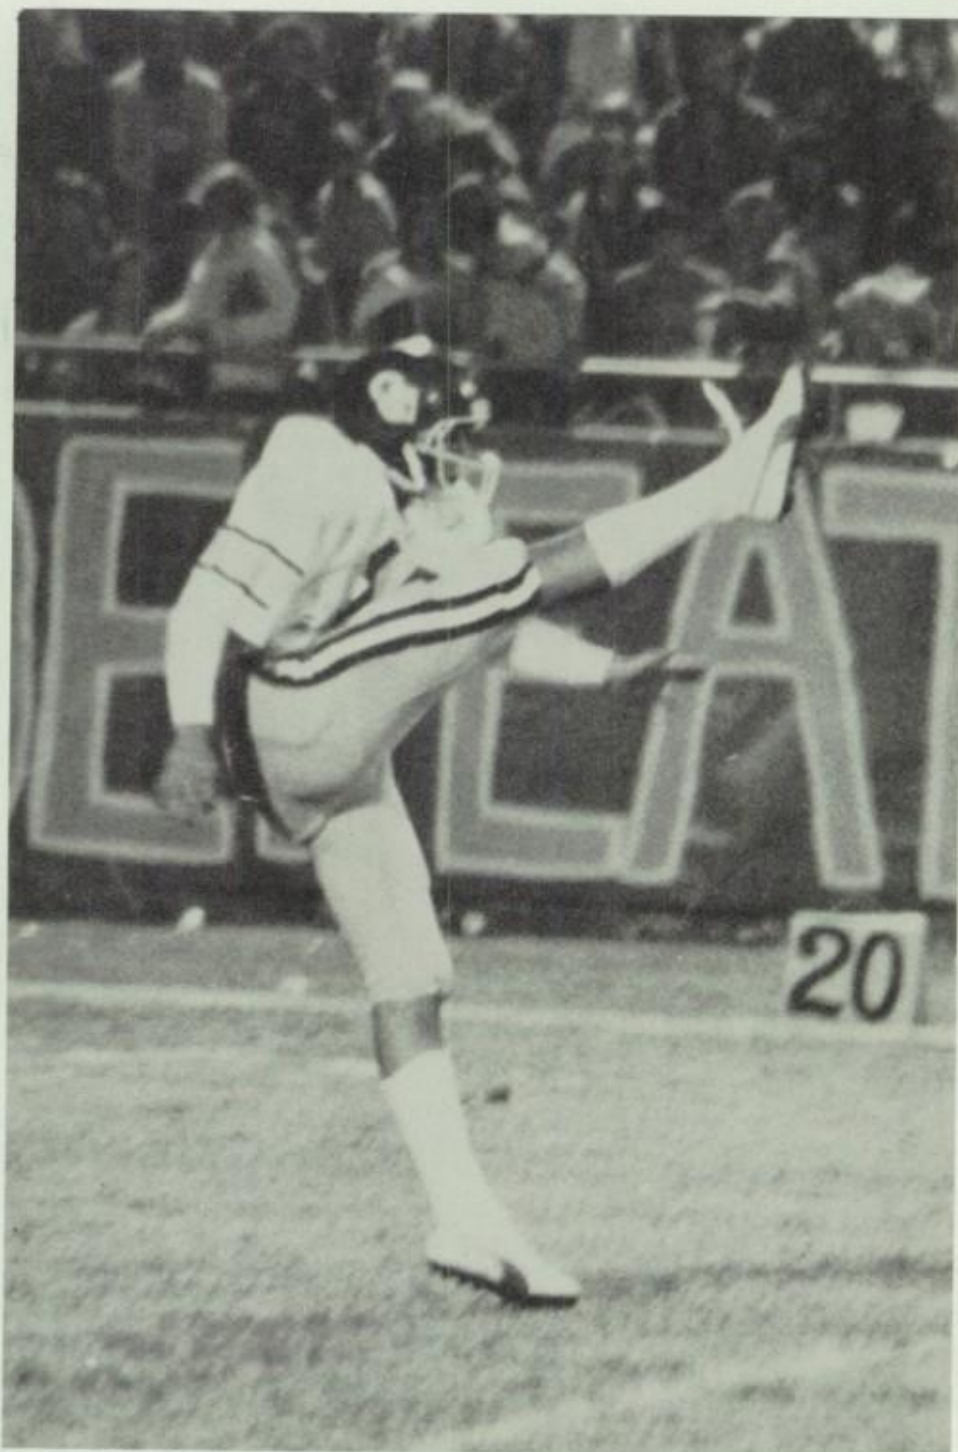

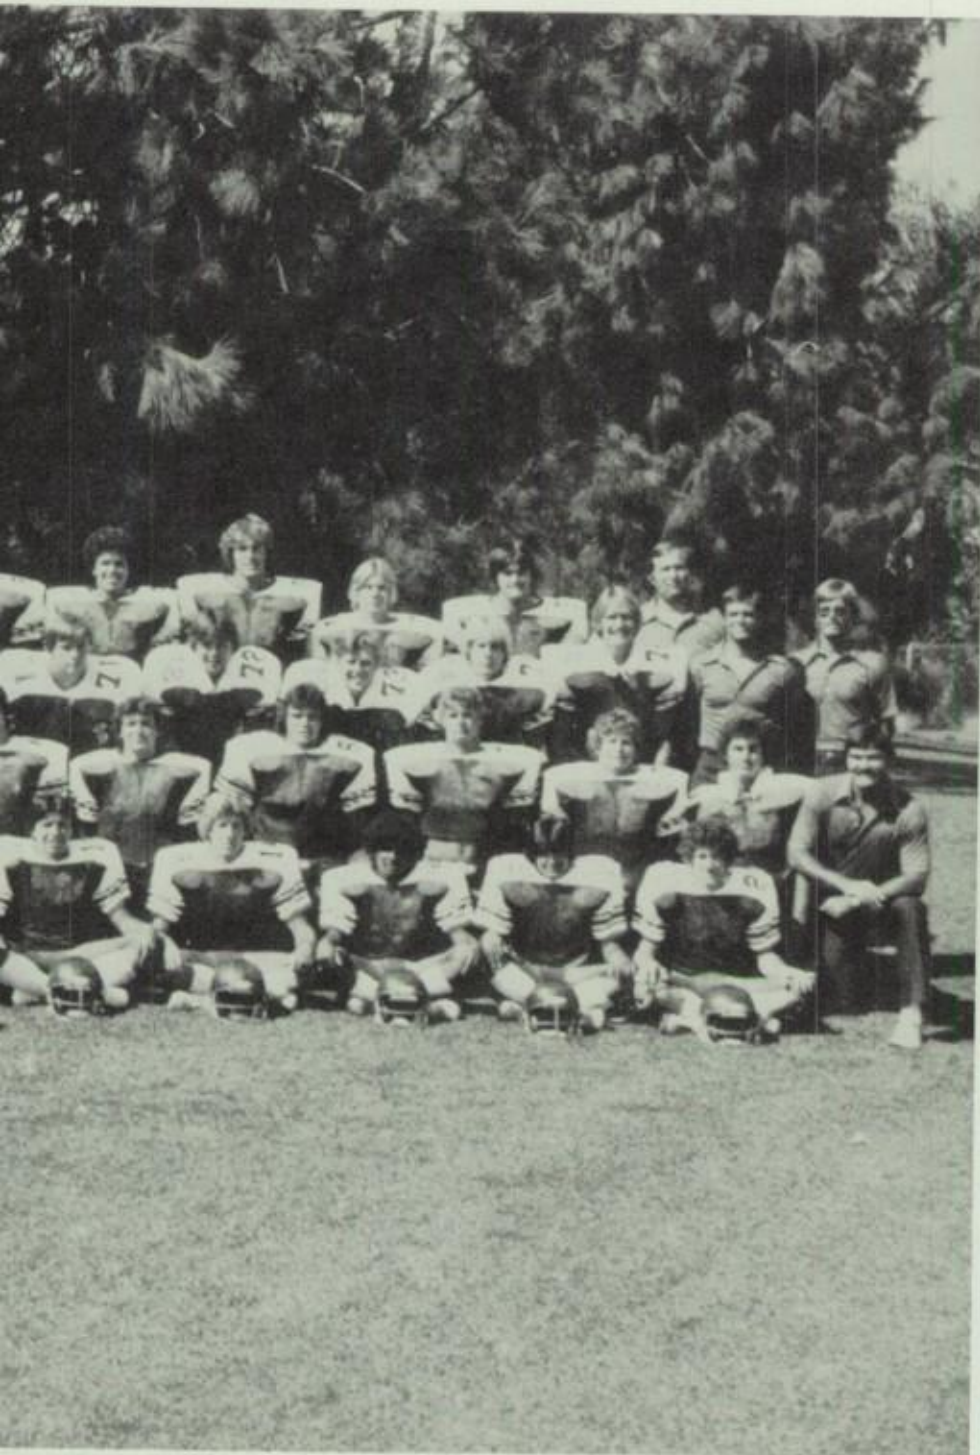

Spirit with . . . SPORTS

In their first season as a full fledged member of the N.Y.L., the Golden Eagle football team proved over and over again they are definitely a team worthy of respect.

The Eagles introduced themselves to the North Yosemite League by battling the McLane Highlanders on even terms until the last four minutes of the game, when the Eagles finally fell to the Scots 28-20.

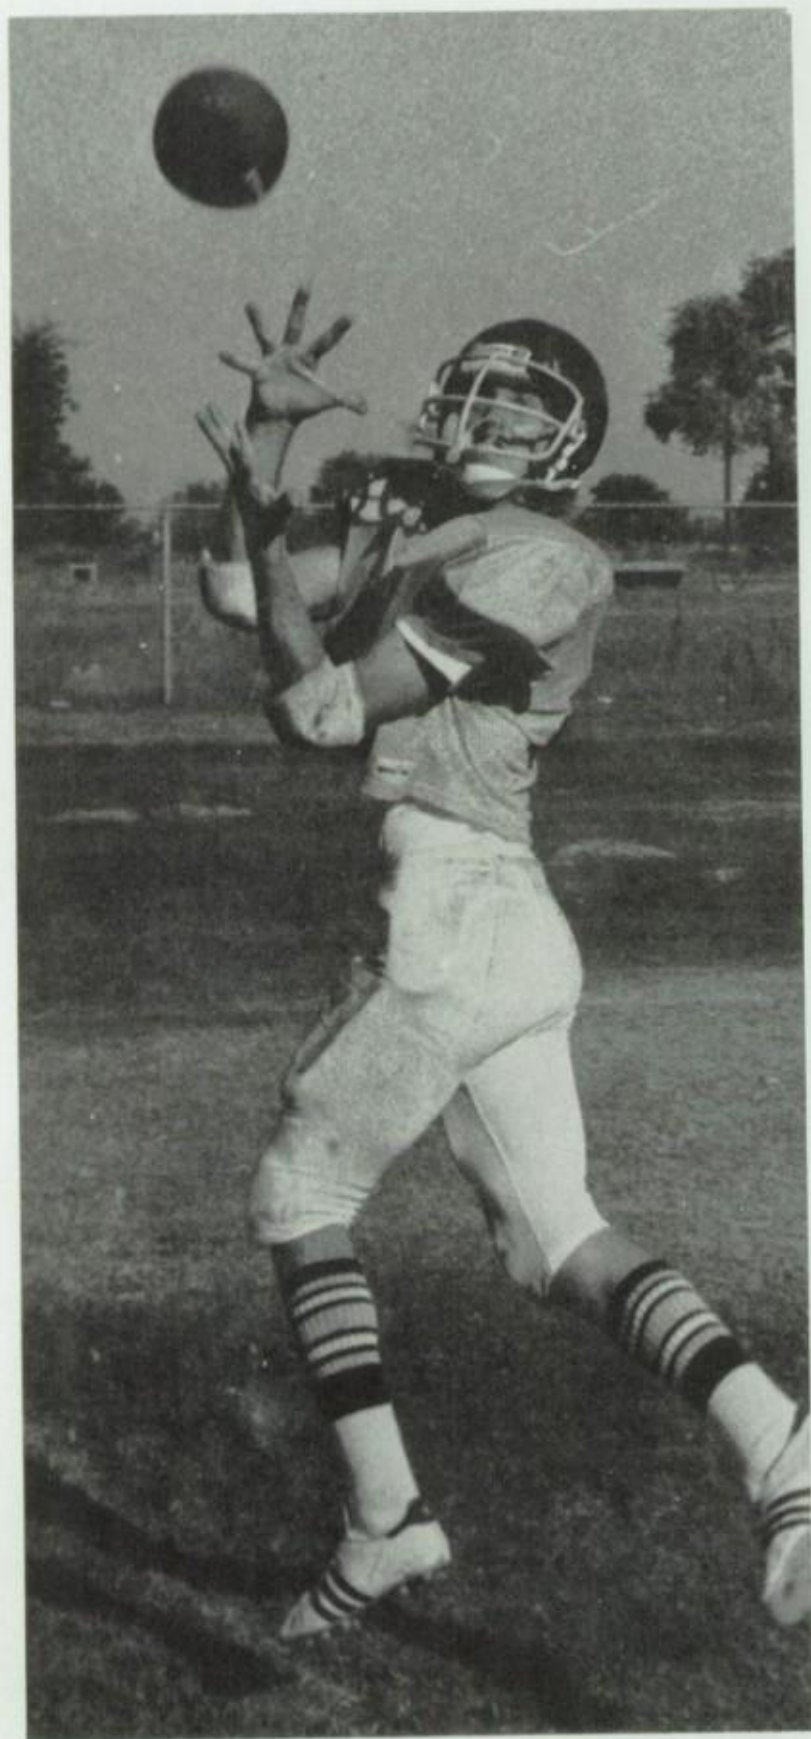

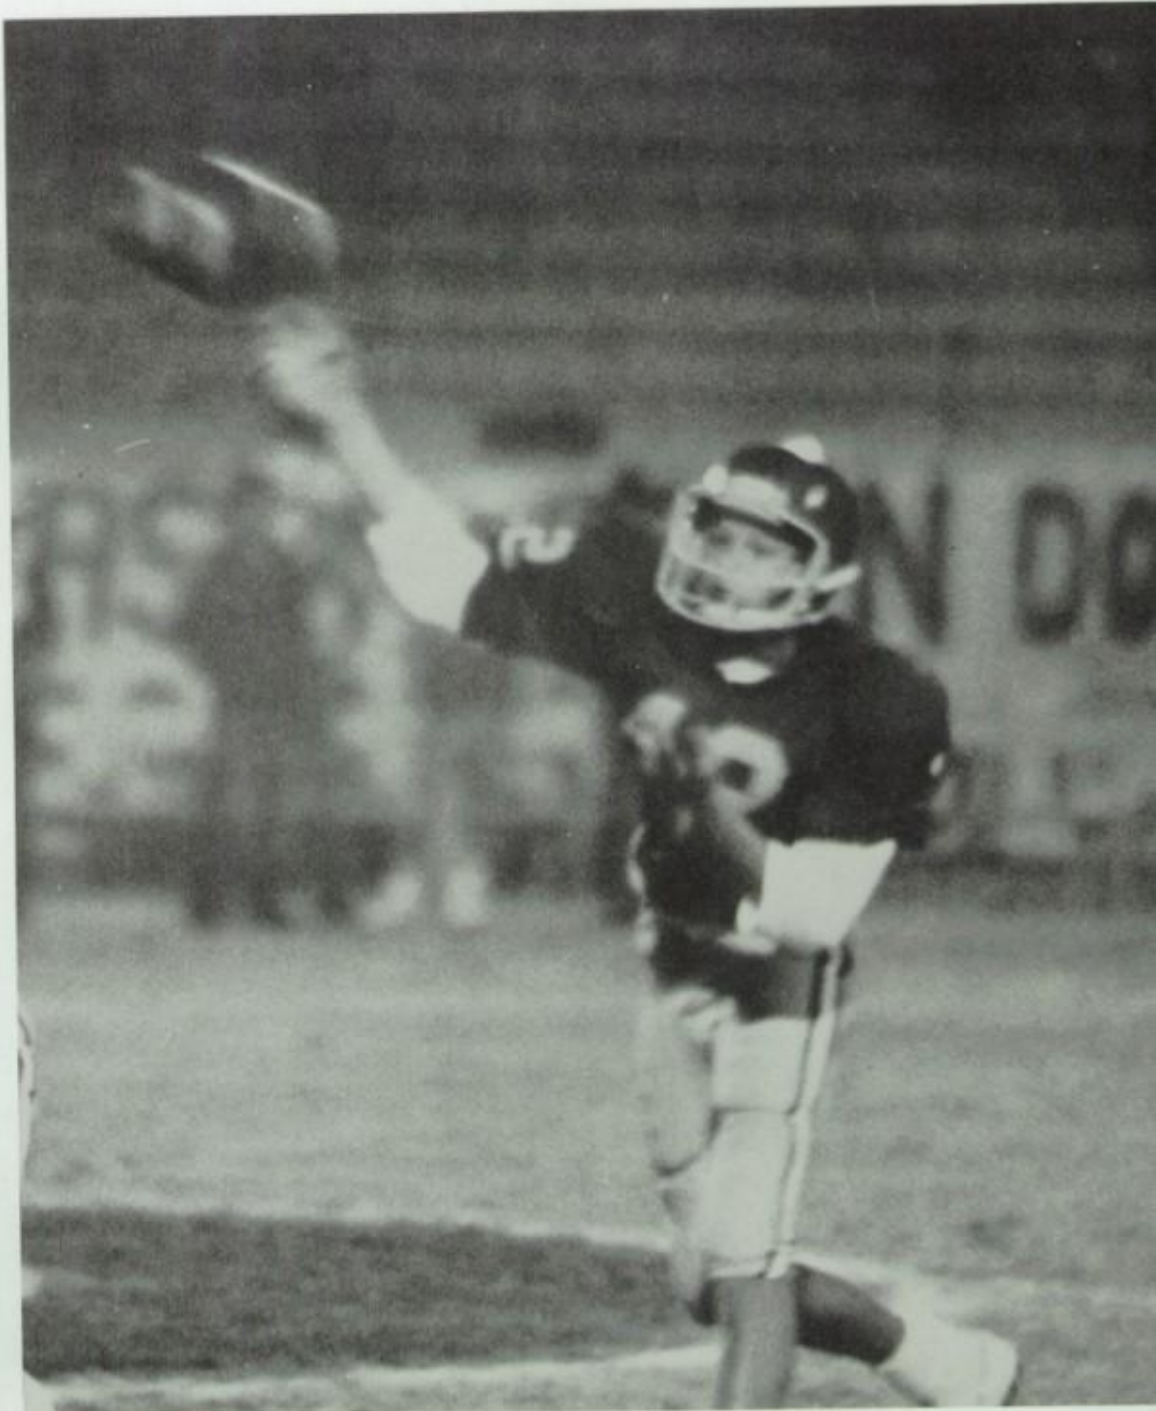

Despite the overall record of 1-9, the Clovis West Golden Eagles demonstrated a strong competitive attitude and gained valuable experience.

An undefeated Junior Varsity football team beat Hoover in their last game to easily win the NYL JV title in their first year of play in the North Yosemite League.

Coached by Mas Aoki, the team demolished all their opponents in route to the best season by a Golden Eagle football team yet.

The boys all played with great determination and skill and will be of great value when they advance to the varsity team.

"Learning is finding out what you already know. Teaching is reminding others that they know just as well as you." This was Coach Steve Kelley's philosophy for the 1979 cross-country team.

Outstanding runners for the varsity boys' team were Todd Obermann and Bullard transfer Gary Oakley, who participated in the Valley Meet. The standout for the varsity girls was Karen Van Wagenen. She ran outstandingly all year, placing first in the Fresno State Invitational and the Kern Invitational.

Coach Cathe Mortensen's Varsity Gymnastics team closed their dual meet season by defeating Madera High School. Cory Hicks earned second all-around by placing first on the vault, second on the beam and third on the floor exercise.

On November 10, Clovis West hosted the NYL Championship Meet. With consistent performances by Cindy Wright, Janet Tartaglia and Jennifer Vose, the team finished the season with a 7-3 overall record and sole possession of fourth place.

With one of the most impressive pool facilities in the nation as a backdrop, the 1979 water polo team distinguished itself with characteristic speed and talent.

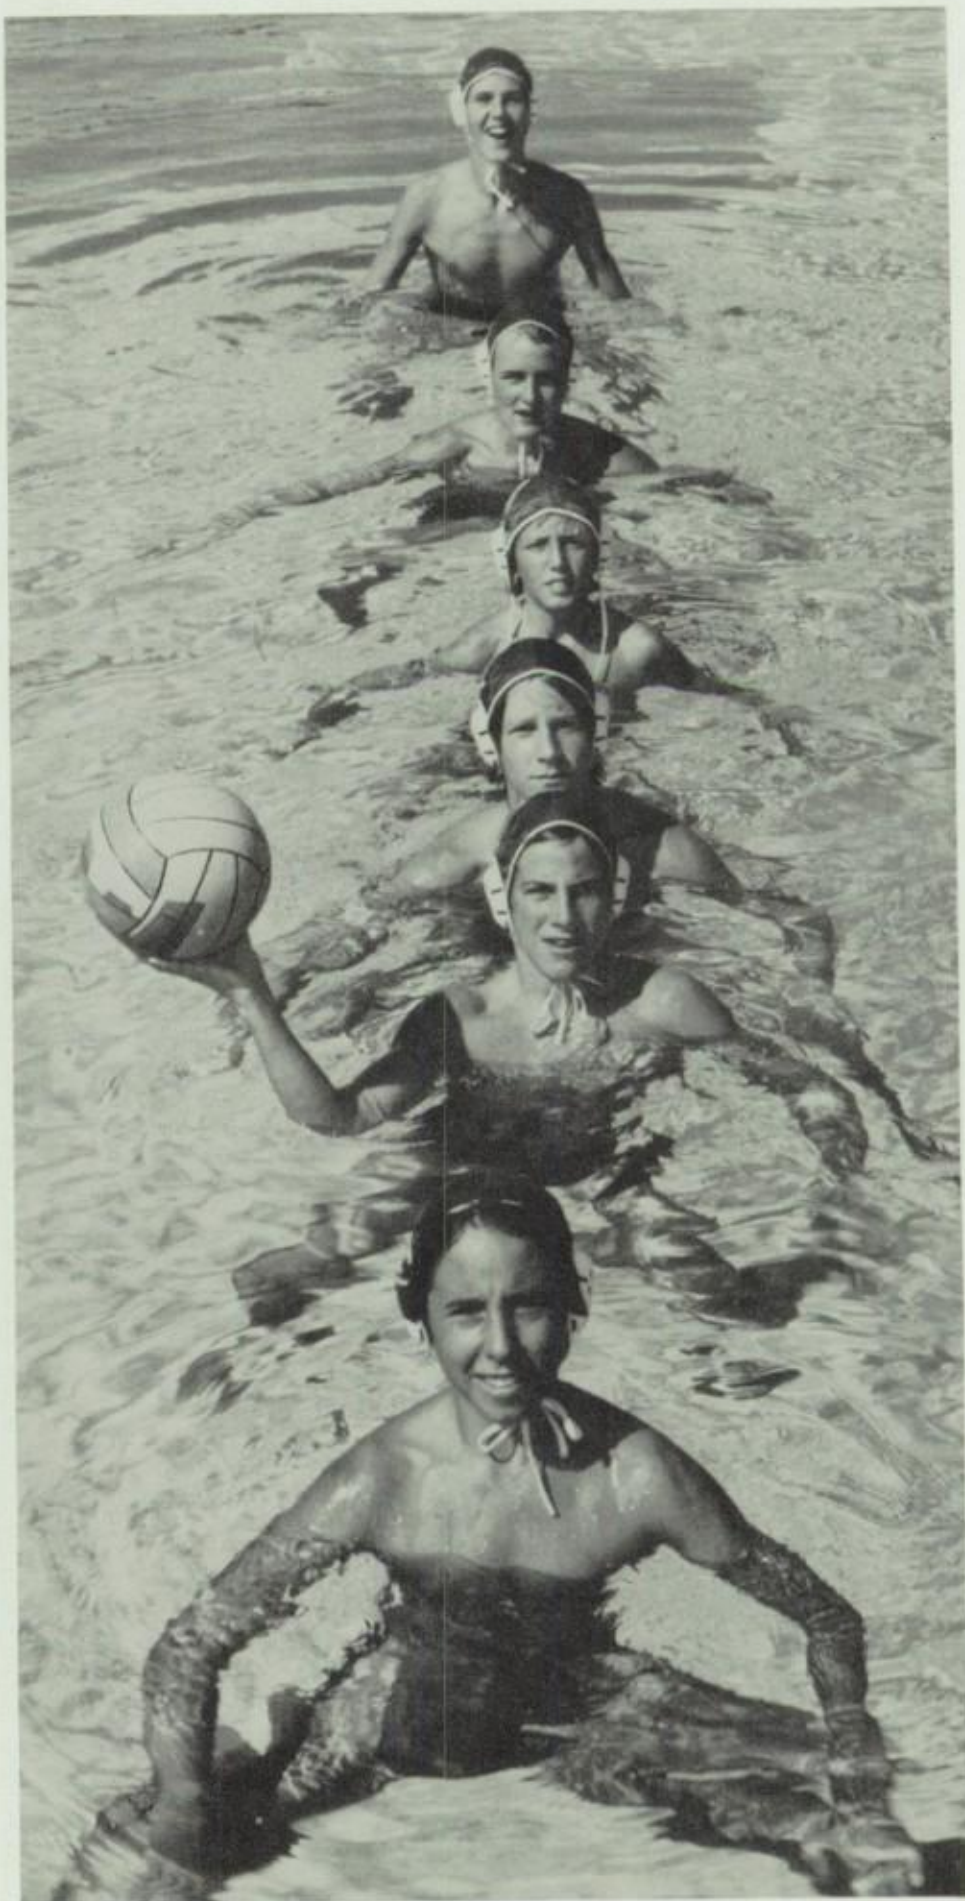

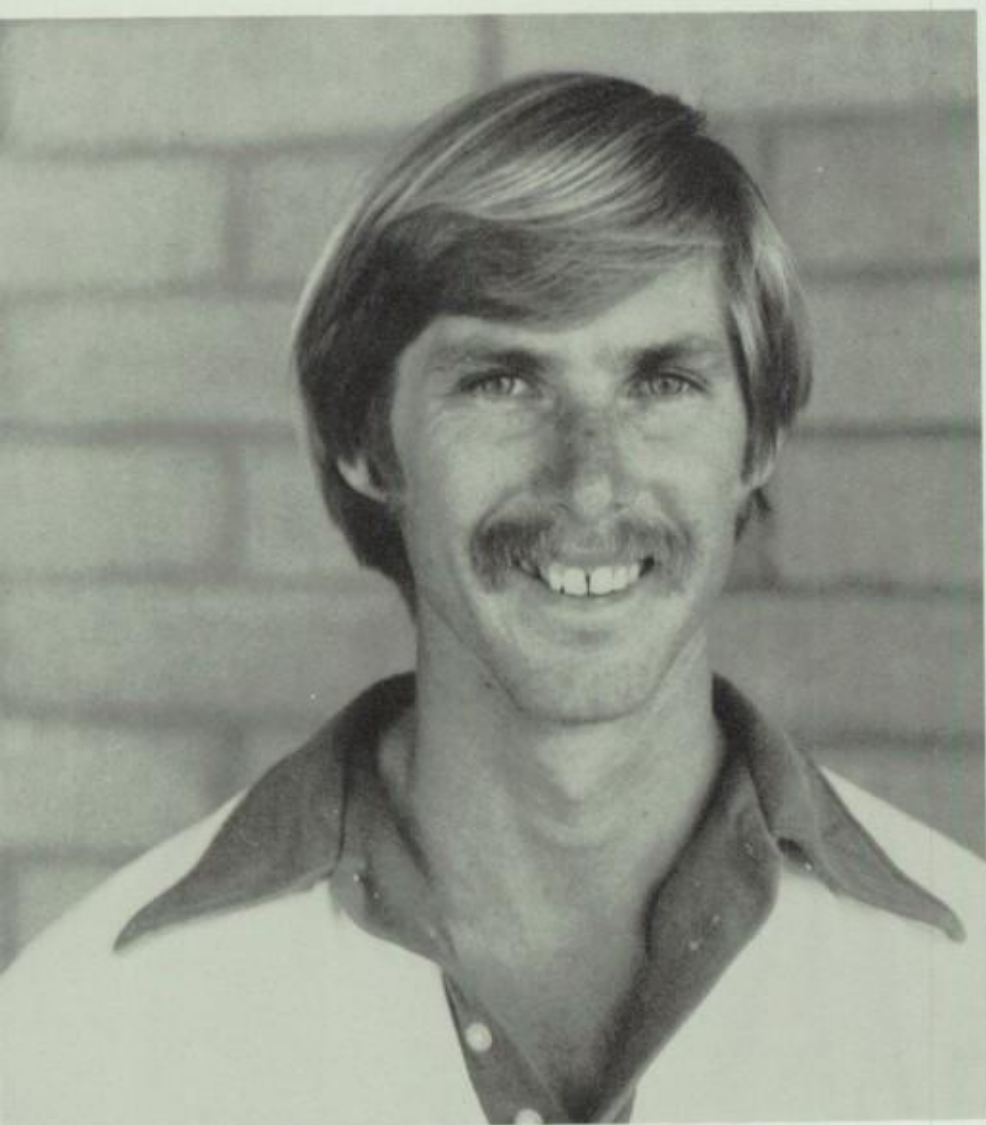

According to coach Steve Mosher, "The varsity team gained a lot of experience and with losing just three players to graduation, we will be even stronger next year."

The Eagles finished the season with a 5-2 record and in a tie for second place. In the championship game of the league tournament they lost to Hoover 5-4, giving them second place in the standings.

Fourth place in the NYL was what the girls volleyball team achieved this year. Under the coaching of Susan Yates, the first year team drove to an impressive eight win, four loss record.

The team closed the season by defeating the Bullard Knights with Ruth Lawanson providing most of the offensive power. The entire team showed great poise and confidence throughout the course of the season.

Exciting basketball was what The Clovis West Varsity team played this year. In the running for the league championship most of the year, the Eagles showed their tenacity and overall team spirit.

Terry Reason once again led the league with most points, and Kevinly Shakir, Brad Comstock and Eric Redelfs supported the scoring attack with their scoring and rebounding talents.

First year coach Steve Cleveland guided the Eagles to their best finish ever backed by the most spirited fans in the valley. Those teams that dared to come to Eagle Country left deaf and usually on the losing side of the score sheet.

The NYL JV basketball league was the most competitive league in quite a few years. At one point in the season, four teams were tied for first place and two teams were tied for second.

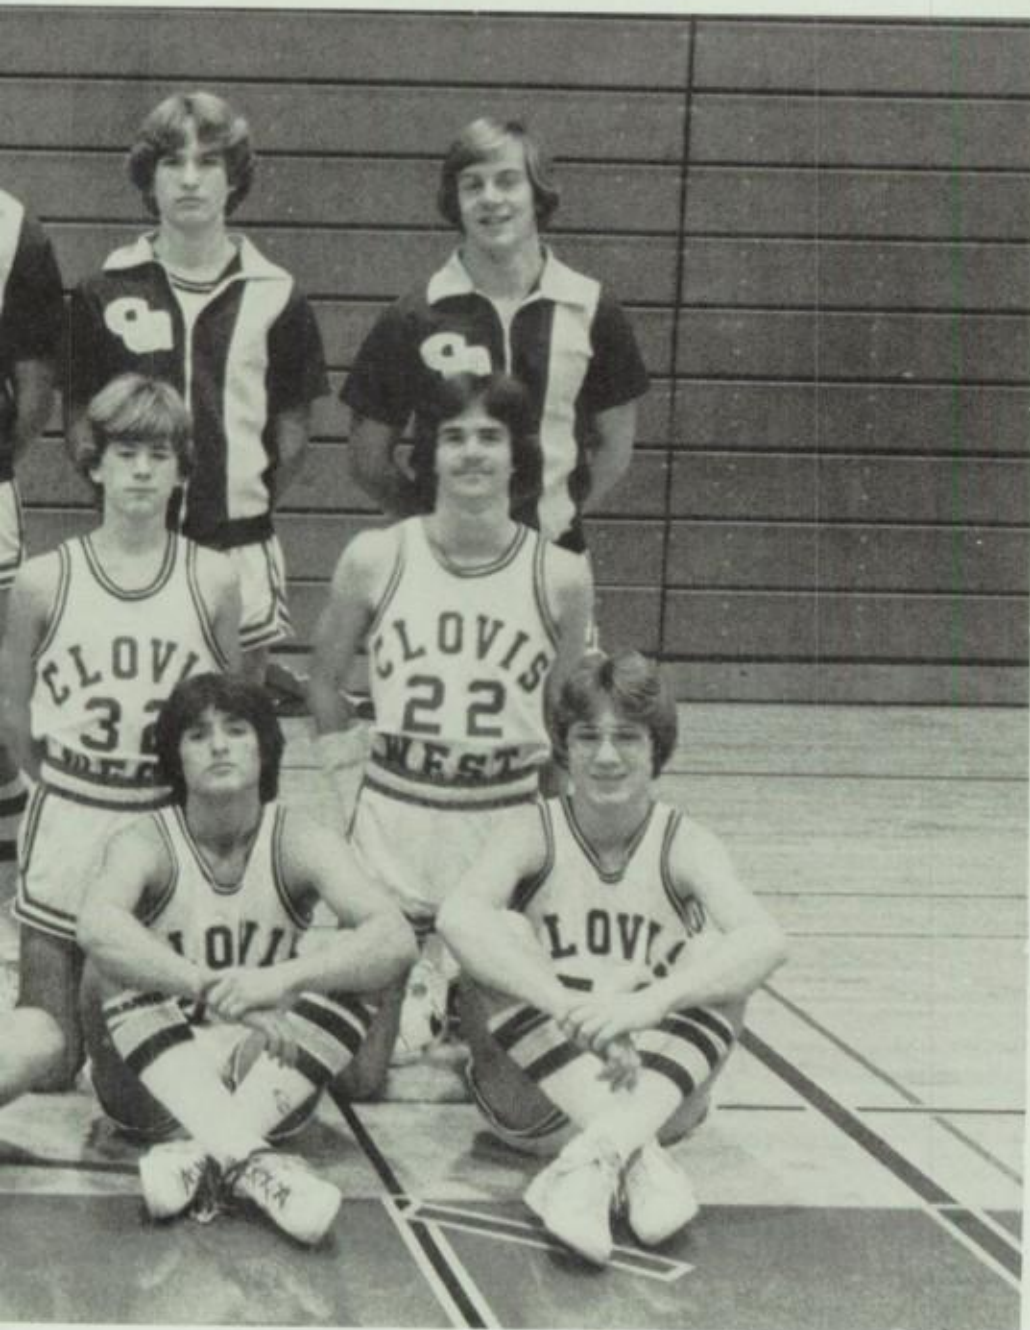

The Clovis West JV team was also very competitive. With two of the best guards in the league, Vince Wesson and Geoff Petersen, the Eagles won the consolation championship at the McLane JV Tournament.

Outstanding players that also contributed to the success of the team included Rick Bode, Dan Nino, Don Harline, and Phil Hickey.

Experience counts especially in wrestling, and our varsity team has plenty of experience. Many of the team members have been wrestling since elementary school, as a result they have gained the knowledge that is so necessary to compete in the highly competitive NYL.

In the one big tournament of the year in Morro Bay the team came away with several trophies and a great sense of accomplishment. In the match against Clovis High, the wrestlers almost pulled off an upset but the Clovis High grapplers proved to be too much.

Returning players 11 total, provided the punch for the girls' soccer team this year. The team, under the leadership of coach Del January, fought most of the season for the North Yosemite League Championship.

Anchoring the strong defense was goalie Karren Sandusky, a standout performer, also fullbacks Kari McKenzie, Betsy Elia, and Jennifer Simpson. The offense was led by top scorer Kathy Boling and the entire offensive line, including Connie Chiljian, Noram Romo and Janet Tartaglia.

Incorporating teamwork and spirit into a winning combination was what the girls' varsity basketball team did this year to place them at the top of the highly competitive NYL. Each individual contributed to the depth and maturity that is needed to be a standout team in any sport.

Special recognition was given to seniors Jennifer Martin, Debbie Humphreys, Caroline Mullin and Suzanne Pett.

The very aggressive and spirited JV girls' team showed a lot of skill and ability this year and wound up in the top section of the league standings.

Inclement weather hampered early practice efforts, but the golf team made up for lost time. With a core of returning players and a few needed newcomers, the team made a very respectable showing in their first year of NYL play.

Outstanding players who contributed to the team's successes were Evan Hunter, Mike Koehler, and Mike Whitten. With many of the team returning next year, the prospects for a bright future for the golf team are growing.

Several record smashing performances were turned in by the boys' track team in the first couple of dual meets they participated in. More records were broken as the season progressed and the team found themselves in contention for the league title.

Todd Obermann, David Fanning, Jonothan Guevara and Vincent Cunningham all turned in spectacular performances to pace the team in their efforts to win the NYL title in their first year in the league.

Two championships in the Central Sequoia League were already under the girls track team's collective belt going into this season. Changing leagues proved to be both exciting and competitive. The season started out strong and stayed that way. During the Corcoran invitational, Clovis West dominated every running event and topped last year's league champs, Clovis High, by 33 points. Loretta Aragon, Ruth Lawanson and Betsy Elia anchored the small but experienced team during their bid for league supremacy.

Returning members from last years championship team carried this years edition of the tennis squad to another impressive season. New additions to the team contributed to many victories and made this one of their best years yet.

The girls' team exhibited substantial strength and growth in this year's league play. More girls tried out for the team than ever before, providing a nucleus of experienced players from which to draw.

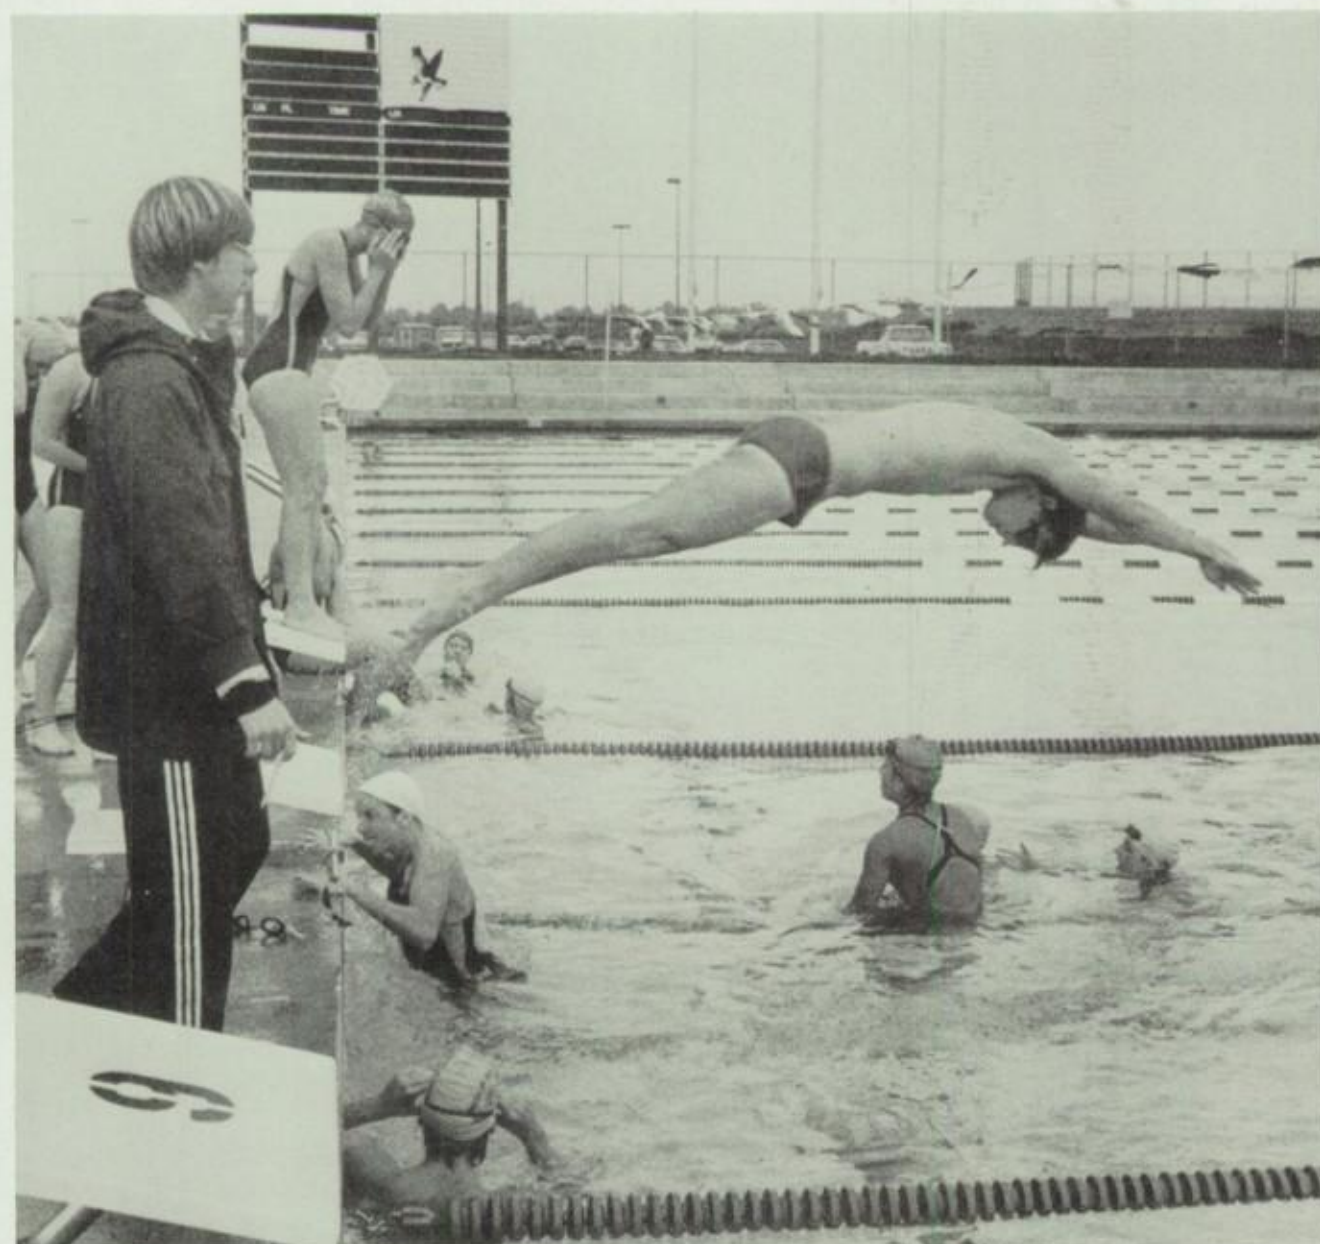

Connie Chiljian, Kristi Knight and Julie Bradford enjoyed their best season ever, giving Clovis West the edge over several Competitors and leading, ultimately, to a successful year in tennis.

Kelly Thomason desperately tries to control the ball (opposite above). Gail Benzler (opposite right) practices on her follow through during practice. Karen Shank (opposite below) concentrates on a serve. TENNIS: (above) Bottom Row; C. Chiljian, K. Jackson, M. Owens, L. Haun, M. Shreeve, C. Morgan, K. Shank, M. Elias. Second Row; M. Ituarte, K. Lomier, L. Hargis, C. Maro, J. Cleeny, D. Check, L. Fendley, K. Bradford, K. Vogel. Third Row; G. Bengher, J. Bradford, K. Knight, S. Coffman, K. Thomason, K. Comstick, V. DePry, J. Pius, S. Majors, L. Wheeler, Coach Lisa Zaph. Julie Bradford, (Below) works on her graceful forehand.

The experience and dedication of the members of our Golden Eagles Swimming Team was the key factor for the team's success this year. Members of the team spend countless hours practicing in all kinds of weather to get ready for their meets.

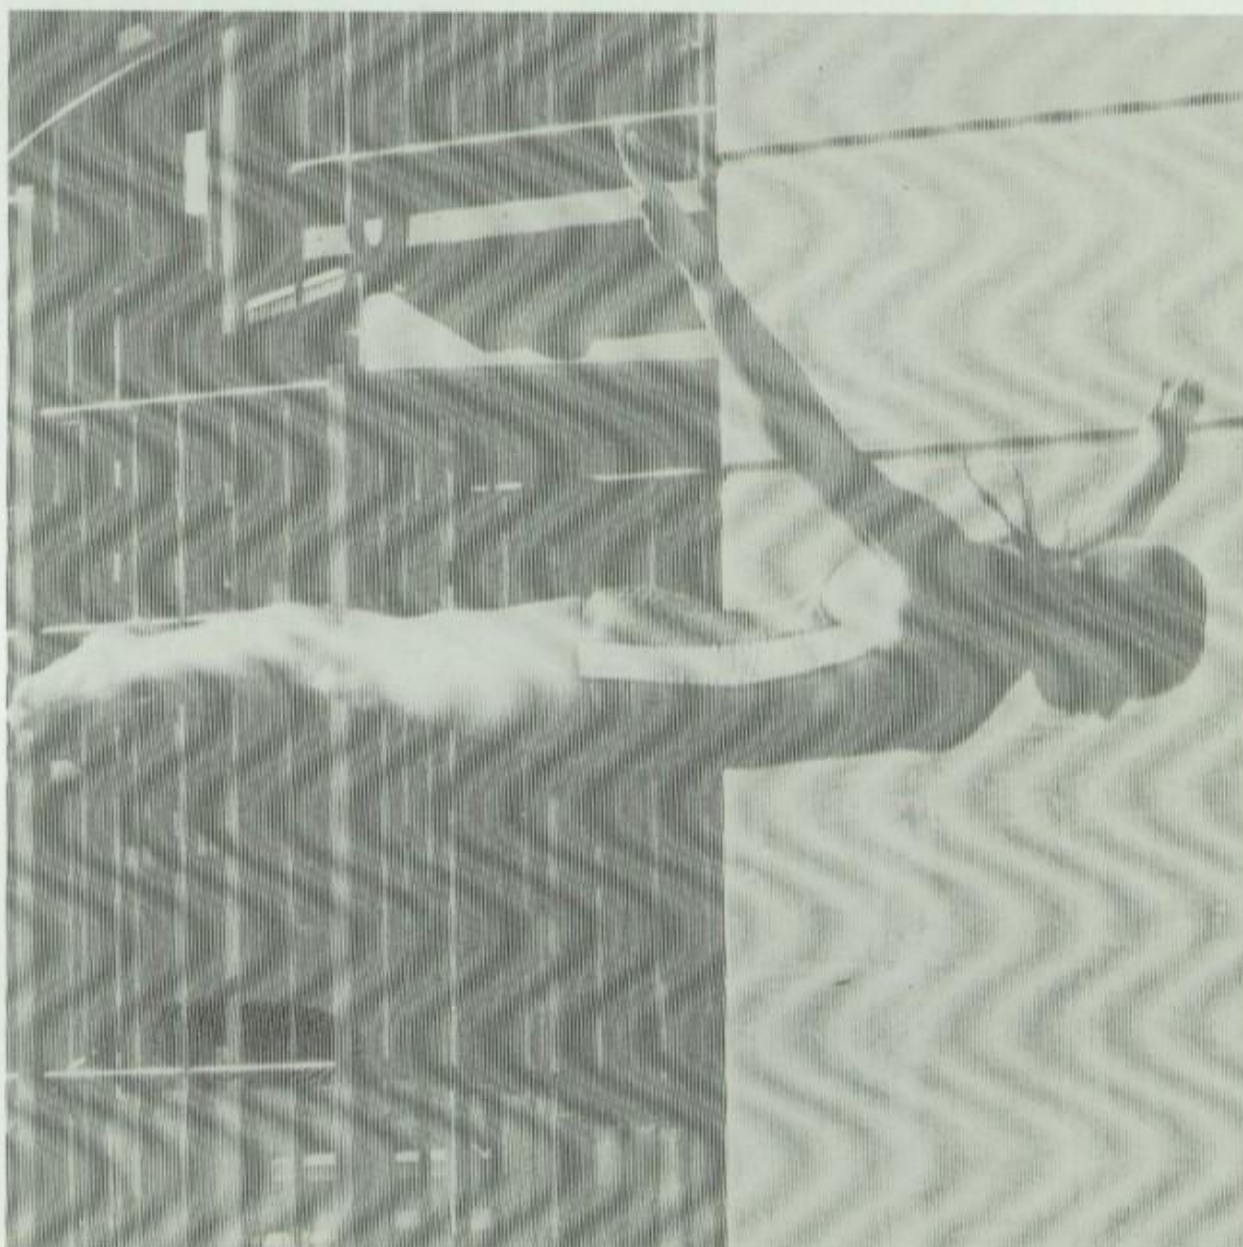

Our swimmer (Opposite Above) takes his last gasp of air before his final effort for first place. A good start (Opposite Left) off the blocks is essential for winning a race. Becky Allen (Opposite Left) times and keeps track of how our swimmers are doing. SWIMMING TEAM: (Above) Bottom Row; S. Henry, D. Standing, D. McGrath, D. Patterson, L. Hoffman, K. Smith, R. Lahanier, C. Provost. Second Row; J. Volpp, K. Rossi, T. Smoyer, V. Orazo, D. Calahan, K. Holiday, S. Hoffman, D. Harmon, M. Ellsworth, C. Green, K. Doyle, S. Flugel, Becky Allen. Third Row; Steve Mosher, P. Provost, R. Kahn, R. Vose, K. Geary, J. Cobb, S. Wattendorff, K. Holliday, V. Rose, J. Tonseth, M. Jackson, J. Downing, C. Ajemain. A Clovis West swimmer (Left) demonstrates good starting technique.

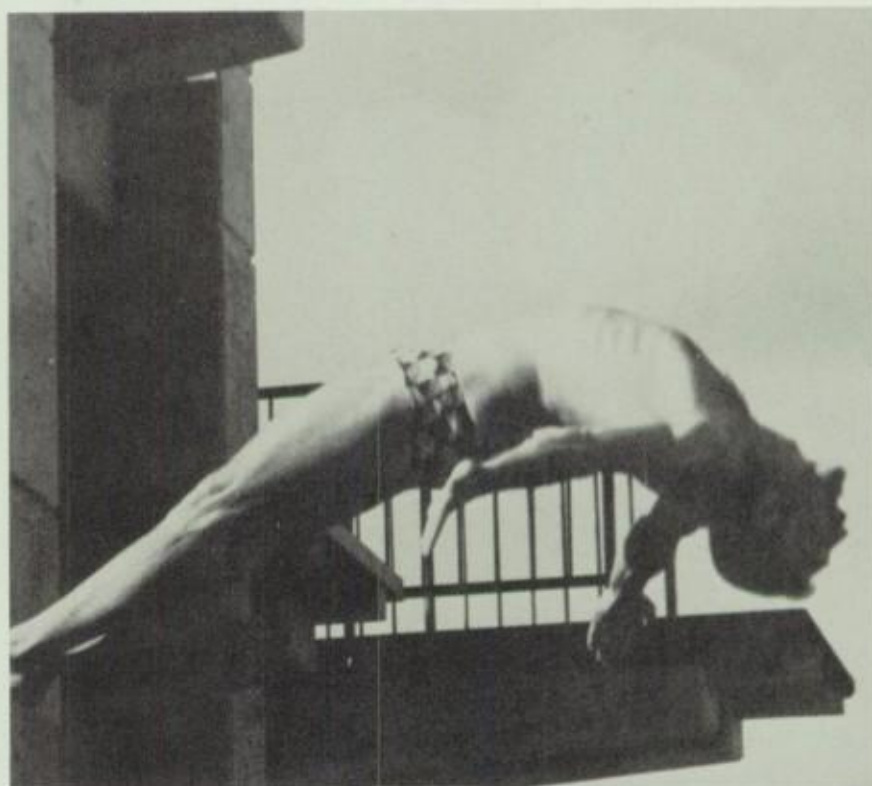

Under the expert leadership of second-year coach, Pat Eaton, the Clovis West Diving Team expanded both in numbers and ability. Ever fighting the cold, rainy weather, the 1980 team showed what they were made of as the season progressed. Many of the newer divers made impressive beginnings, while returning veterans continued to improve on last year's showing.

An exciting game of softball is what you see when you attend one of the Clovis West Girls' Softball games. The girls play an extremely competitive game and did very well this season in N. Y. L. Among the victories chalked up were Mclane (7-1), Bullard (12-1), Madera (4-2), Parlier (28-0), Fresno (3-0).

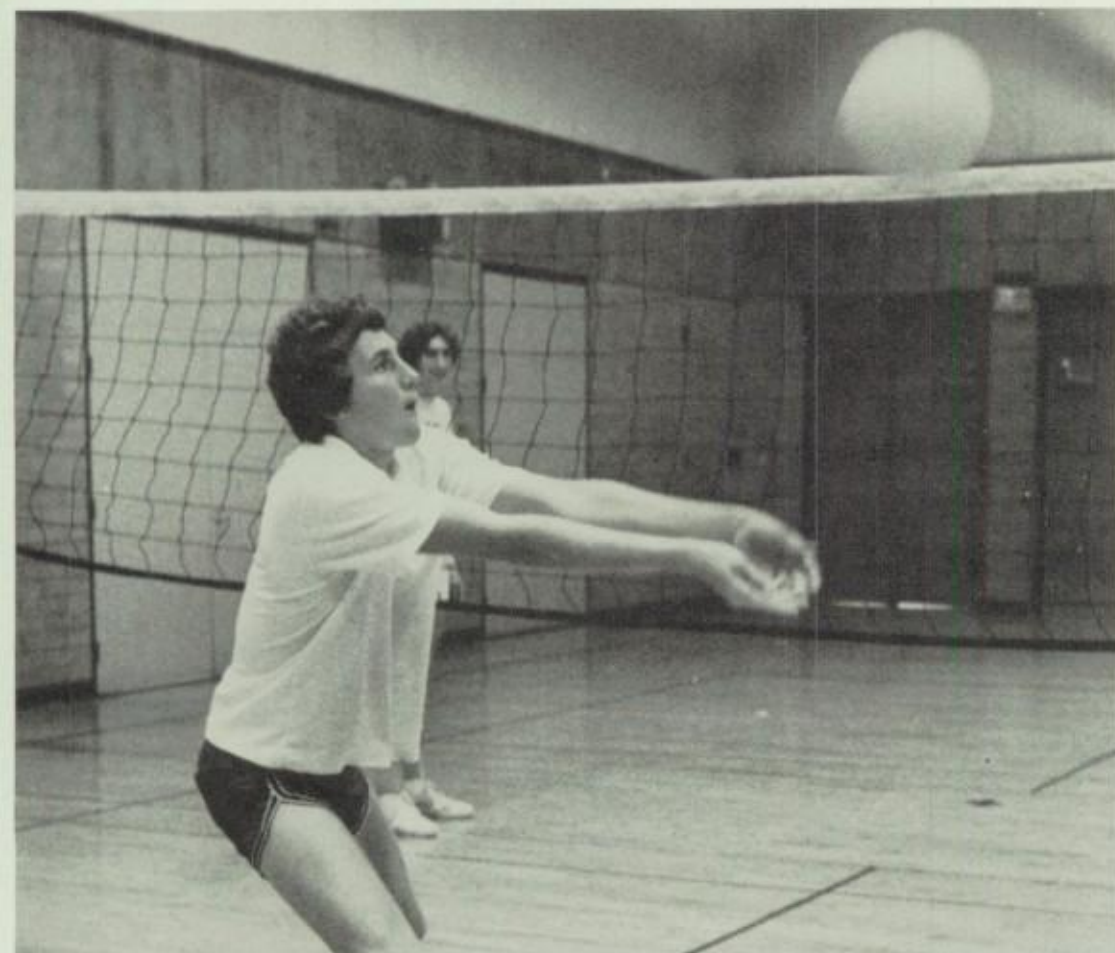

Jill Bradford (opposite above left) starts this game as pitcher. Suzanne Peet (opposite above right) covers first base. Jill Slakey (opposite below) playing third base, is ready for the ball. GIRLS' SOFTBALL TEAM: (above) Bottom Row: T. Lewis, J. Slakey, T. Green, T. Bruno, D. Little, J. Rowley, K. Bowling, K. Camoroda, S. Green, C. Mullin. Top Row: Tom Deel, L. Ainsworth, R. Barnes, J. Bradford, S. Peet, J. Martin, J. Alexander, J. Rowlen, D. Ray, K. Brennon, D. Humphreys.

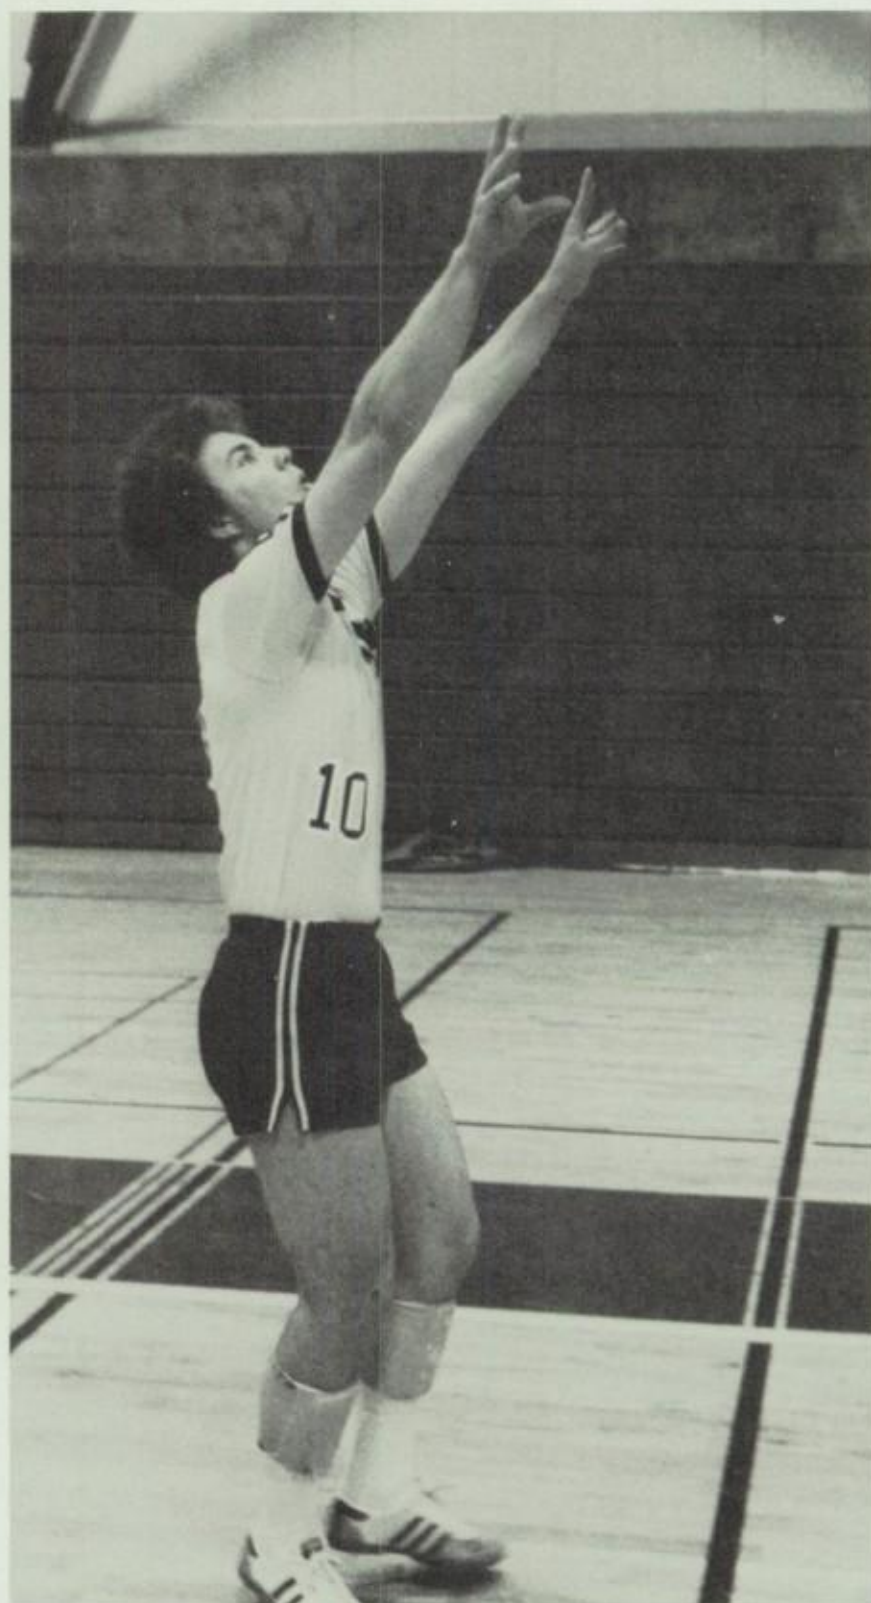

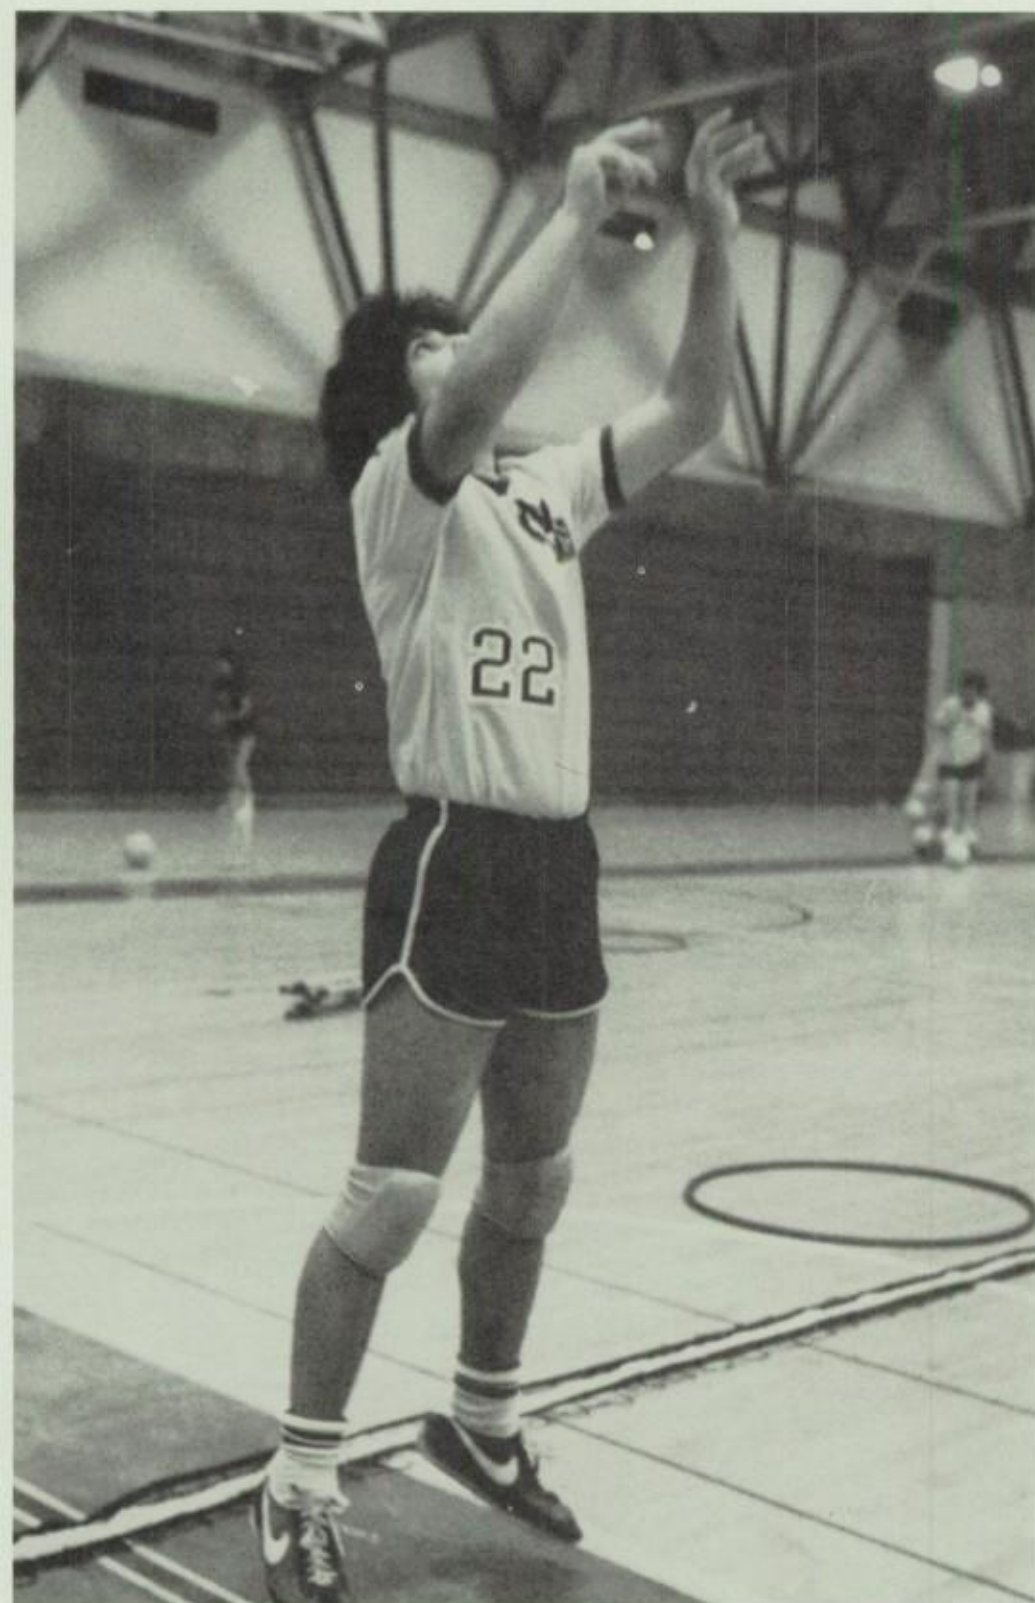

Great improvement was made by the boys volleyball team in this, their first year in NYL action. The team showed spirit and looked impressive in early showings and went on to an impressive finish in their inaugural season.

Key players in the Golden Eagle attack were Eric Redelfs, Greg Sweeney and Mike Davis.

(Opposite above) BOYS VOLLEYBALL: Front Row; A. Totatian, J. Hillard, R. Davis, T. Sharp, M. Darakjian, C. Curtis. Back Row; R. Eobles, B. Glahn, B. Redelfs, M. Davis, E. Redelfs, G. Sweeney, D. Howard, S. Camoroda, Susan Yates. Mike Davis (opposite below) attempts to set up a spike. Greg Sweeney (left) bumps the ball to a teammate. Mark Darakjian passes the ball forward in a match against McLane (below left). Jeff Hilliard (below) hits one over the net against Bullard.

Excellence in Home Building for over 30 Years!

A fine home is made of wood and brick and mortar. For more than 30 years, Spano Enterprises has been building fine homes in Fresno and the San Joaquin Valley. We congratulate the Clovis West class of 1980.

The logo for Spano Enterprises, featuring a stylized white shield with a black outline, set against a background of a brick wall and a wooden door. The text "SPANNO ENTERPRISES" is written inside the shield.

The process of planning and producing a yearbook requires a lot of time, effort, and above all patience. Without patience for others and especially for yourself, more time is spent on ironing out personal difficulties than on the main job; that of producing a quality yearbook.

Although the bulk of the work is done by the yearbook production class, valuable and necessary services were rendered by several persons, without whose help this book would not have been completed successfully. Mr. Tom Larson, The Herli-Jones representative, who offered many suggestions and ideas; Mr. Jerry MacDonald, who smoothed out some early difficulties and Joe Frisina and his staff who provided many photographic man-hours, all have the staff's personal thanks. A very special thanks to the faculty of Clovis West who allowed many of us to miss class on several occasions to work on deadlines. Also to Mrs. Virginia Bishop, who will never forget her first year as advisor.

The two years that I have been a part of the OLYMPIAD staff have been two great years. The new friends I've made and the good times I've had will always be remembered by me, for there is nothing better in the world than to have good friends, and above all, to be a good friend.

Mr. Lavin, you not know my name that I come from. You were there for much for the school and I can't say that I was surprised to hear you were leaving West. Please tell you need new challenges, and Fraternity to compare. I know that Clovis West would not be #1 today, but it not far from Lavin. You realize that you are a member of the select few who did not get T-10 Paper on them?
House. You Deserved that consideration. Again I will miss, but I am confident that you will be successful in a better way and more. I wish only the best, for your future. Take care of God Bless You,

#2
Sus Hog

P.S. I'll take your advice about UCLH. They I mean even are for spirit Badly Pres, on the grounds that Insanity have taken over the world.
Again I love you, and God Bless Your family and Yourself.
Please write! 345 W Birch

well the year has slipped away! I think it's really really hard to write, in a yearbook your true feelings but I'll try -

I think you have helped me accomplish everything had it not been for you and your disciples, I think I'd be a nothing without you - you are the most positive person I have ever met. Thanks.

I wish you just a ton of luck next year in your business - and I hope you take over the world.

I have this list in my bedroom - under my bed - of people who I will never ever forget for the help they have given me. You have taken an extremely high spot on my own "elite" list.

good luck in the future - and I hope this truly expressed my feelings

Kevin Rosenstein

P.S. my sister Beth said good luck and she thinks you're great!
